

SANTA'S MAILBAG

'You like to play Barbies?'

Dear Santa Claus,
Hi. How are you? How is Mrs. Claus and the reindeer today? How is Rudolph? I like his shiny nose. Would you come to my house please. I would like a Hot Wheels garage and Hot Wheels cars. Could I have a bulldozer please. Hope you have a Merry Christmas day.
Love Billy Politi, age 4,
Elgin Street, Georgetown

Dear Timothy and Cameron,
My, what a lovely Christmas card you've sent me! I always appreciate it when the children tell me in advance they'll be spending Christmas at someone else's home. Now I know I'll have to bring all the presents for Timothy and Cameron to Warkworth, and maybe I'll have some special things for Grandma and Grandpa, too!
Love, Santa

Tell all the reindeer and elves hello for me.
Kris Anderson,
Georgetown

Dear Kris,
My reindeer and elves say hello to you, too, Kris, and they're just about ready to load up my sleigh for a trip to Georgetown. Your letter doesn't say whether you want a toy spaceship or a real spaceship, so I'll have to look around for one of each just to make sure. But come Christmas Day, Kris, and you'll have to choose one of them!
Lots of love, Santa

Clement and I'm 3 years old. I have been a really good boy this year. Can you please bring me some toy motorcycles, some trucks and a toy boat. Santa please bring mommy something nice. We'll leave some milk and cookies for you Christmas night.
Love Tyler Clement,
Georgetown

Dear Tyler,
With all those little vehicles like a boat, a motorcycle and a truck, it sounds like you'll be taking your Mommy on some nice trips! Thanks very much for writing, Tyler, and look under the tree this Christmas morning for some special surprises.
Lots of love, Santa

Dear Billy,
You know, it's been a long time since Rudolph first joined my herd of reindeer. Remember like in the story when everyone was making fun of his nose, but soon he showed us how special he is? Still, after all these years, he's as special as always and children all over the world sing his song. Rudolph says he'll visit your house Christmas Eve and come inside with me. Maybe you could leave him some carrots. I'm sure he'd like that.
Thanks for writing, Santa

Love,
Trevor Lambert,
Prince Charles Drive,
Georgetown

you for leaving me some goodies; I always love a little snack on my rounds.
Lots of love, Santa

Dear Santa,
This is what we want for Christmas. My sister wants a Happy Birthday Barbie Doll. I want a large Rubik's Cube or a stuffed smurf or a Barbie horse. This is what I want my horse to look like: I want it to have a white mane and I want it to be beige and I want the neck to move so it can lean down to eat the grass. We want some clothes for our Barbies. I also want a curling iron, a comb etc. for my Barbie doll. This is what we want. Just decide what you want to bring for my sister and I.

Dear Trevor,
I sure did like Christmas last year. It seems like Christmas gets better every year, you know? And yes, I've been known to settle back after supper with a lolly pop and a newspaper, so if there are any extra ones at your house, that might make a nice little treat this Christmas Eve. I'm sure I'll find plenty of presents to make you happy, Trevor, thanks for writing.
Love, Santa

Dear Santa Claus,
How is your reindeer? I tried to be good, so I like an Elf Racer, a digital derby, a Rubik's Cube, an NHL Pro Stars Hockey.
Yours truly,
Kenny Schnopp,
Longfield Road, Acton

Please Santa, I want a guitar.
Michael,
London, Ontario

Dear Kerry,
Thank you for asking, my boy; the reindeer are doing just fine, and as a matter of fact, they've been taking turns trying to figure out their own Rubik's Cube. Mrs. Claus and I had a go with the cube when one of our elves first brought one home, but you know I could never figure it out either. Maybe you'll have better luck - I'll see if I can find you one.
Bye for now, Santa

Dear Marilyn and Stacy,
You like to play Barbies together don't you? It's nice that you can share clothes for your dolls. I have my elves already hunting up the things you want me to bring you from the North Pole. They're sure they put them in a safe place for you. They just have to find where. Don't worry though, girls, I'll try and have them for you soon.
Kisses, Santa

Dear Michael,
Now here's a little boy who knows exactly what he wants, and he's written to me all the way from London to ask for a guitar. Well I'll try and find you one, Michael, but you have to promise me you'll keep practising on it and maybe play me a song sometime.
Love, Santa

Dear Santa,
I like you. I would like a Chips helmet and Criss Cross Crash. I have been a good boy and I'm 4 years old. My brother Cameron would like a Chips helmet too and a motorcycle with pedals. Cameron is two years old. Could you please stop at my Grandpa and Grandma Hunter's in Warkworth because we're spending Christmas with them this year.
Love, Timothy and Cameron
Hunter, Terra Cotta

Dear Santa,
Did you like last year's Christmas? Would you like a lolly pop after your supper? I'll try to save you one. I very very love you! Now here comes the toy part. I want this: a Tommy Talker, Missing Link game, Dukes of Hazzard, Space Lego, big smurfs, Dr. Drill and Fill and Merlin, or Sea Shark. If you don't have these bring something you think I will like.
Thank you.

Dear Santa Claus,
I hope you bring the toys that I ordered. I have been good this year. I will leave you some milk and a cookie.
From Andy Pearce,
Albert Street, Georgetown

Dear Andy,
You sound like quite an active little boy between dirt biking and playing Dukes of Hazzard. Yes indeed I will try and bring you all those nice gifts this Christmas, and thank
