

SANTA'S MAILBAG

Dear Santa,
I need a dictionary because everyone always takes ours and leaves it in their room.
Julio deKler
R.R. 2, Georgetown, Ont.

Dear Julie,
A dictionary is a good thing to have, because it will still be very useful when you get on to high school or college. I know how it feels to have one taken and not returned, so I will try to bring one just for you.
Love, Santa

Dear Santa,
I have tried to be a good girl. I hope you will come to our house. I would like Making Faces, Kissing Barbie, western Barbie and her Horse, the girl Monkenoo, would you please bring my Baby Brother Garth a papa Smurf, thank you and I hope you have a Good Christmas, say hello to Rudolph to me and Garth.
Love, Karen Pride,
Georgetown

Dear Karen,
Mrs. Claus and I danced a jig when we heard so many children have been good, Karen. Our house is so crammed full of presents now that the kitchen is the only room with enough floor space to kick up our feet for a happy spin. Santa will be at your house and he'll have lots of presents for you and your baby brother Garth.
Kisses, Santa

Dear Santa,
I would like a typewriter and the game operation, rubik's cube and a missing link, Merry Christmas to you and Mrs. Clause.
Thank you, Tracy Crawford

Dear Tracy,
A typewriter? You know what'll happen if I bring you a typewriter in my sleigh. I may recruit you to help me answer all the nice letters I get this time of year from good boys and girls like yourself, Tracy. Santa gets lots of mail from all over the world. I love hearing from my little friends.
See you soon now, Santa

Dear Santa,
I love you very much. I would like to visit you sometime. Every night I wonder what you will put in my stocking. I am trying very hard to be a good boy. I help my Mom and Dad. I would sure like to look at your reindeer. This year could you please try to bring me the Snoopy Toothbrush, the Fuzzy Pumper Monster Shop, Monchhichi Furniture and Clothes and the Fisher-Price Art Kit.

We will leave you a glass of milk and some goodies in case you are hungry after your long trip from the North Pole. If I fall out of bed, please do not step on me!
Merry Christmas Santa!
Love, Jeff Lanthier,
John Street, Georgetown
Age 4

Dear Jeff,
Don't you worry, my boy, Santa never steps on his little boys, even if they fall out of bed. Thank you for leaving me the goodies. They'll sure be appreciated after the long haul to your house. Keep on trying to be a good boy. I know it's hard sometimes, but remember, Santa loves children who help their parents around the house and take care of their brothers and sisters.
Hugs and kisses, Santa

Dear Santa,
I love you very much. I would like to go to sleepover at your house one time. Do you have lots of snow at the North Pole this year? How far is it to get to the North Pole? What time do you get home on Christmas night? I bet you are very tired.

This year could you please try to bring me a Dukes of Hazzard car with Bo and Luke, the Fuzzy Pumper Monster Shop, Hot Wheel cars and Service Centre, the Alligator game and the Lone Ranger gun set.

Please bring some presents for my littlest brother Derek. He is only 1 year old.
Have a Merry Christmas Santa!

Love, Jason Lanthier
John Street, Georgetown
Age 5

Dear Jason,
So you'd like to snuggle off to sleep at Santa's house, would you? Mrs. Claus and I would be pleased to have you as our guest, but it may be too long a trip for a little boy like you. Maybe when you get a little bit bigger you can come to our house for a visit. You ask about the snow, Jason. Well, my son, there's so much ice and snow up here that I can't even look out my windows to see the stars in the sky! Santa will be sure to bring you and little Derek nice presents Christmas Eve.
Love, Santa
