

Stage set for Sabres-Gemini matchup

A 9-1 loss to Richmond Hill Dec. 21 sets the stage for the Georgetown Junior B Gemini when the eighth place Acton Sabres roll into town this Sunday night.

The Gemini are in a must-win situation because they are in ninth place with 13 points in the Central Junior B league (Dixie have 12 pts., Milton has 9 pts.), while their opponents and cross-town rivals, the Sabres, have a solid hold on eighth place with 21 points.

General manager for the Gemini, Bob Tost doesn't underestimate the Acton Sabre contest and he hopes his players will feel the same way.

"If we don't win against Acton, there's a good chance we're out of the playoffs," Tost said. "The players have to realize how important this game is. It's the players who have to do it (win the game), he said, "You can tell them how important it is to win" he said referring to the overall desire needed by the players to win, not just the coach and executive.

Against Richmond Hill last Dec. 21 Georgetown fell behind early in the period when one minute into the game the Dynes scored. A power play goal by Richmond Hill at the 13:07 mark was avenged by Georgetown one minute later to make the score 2-1 as Chris Peavoy netted the twine on an shot from Mike Tibbitts and Riv Kennedy.

With 48 seconds left in the period Richmond Hill scored again to raise the tally to 3-1.

In the second period Richmond Hill scored three goals, one a power play and another a short handed effort, then they capped off their win with three more goals in the third period for a final 9-1 victory against Georgetown.

SKATING STARS

MORE FIREPOWER
What the Gemini will be looking for is more scoring punch from the forwards. Tost said. He's pleased with the Gem defense when everyone is healthy and in the lineup, but more firepower will be required to win the remaining games of the Junior B schedule, he said.

Penalties and being short-staffed due to a flurry of suspensions which eventually saw six players ejected against Barrie Colts in their 5-3 loss two weeks ago have hurt the team, Tost said.

There is also the question of injured players such as Chris Peavoy who had to leave the Richmond Hill game with a hurt arm, plus Lance Doucette and Bill Taylor. Doucette has been playing but not at full strength.

NO PENALTIES
Against Acton Tost said, "It's pretty obvious we're going to have to stay out of the penalty box." The Gemini GM will be looking for big games from players such as Guy Cormier, Mark Hamilton, Bob Morrow and Bob Dean (who most recently was injured but managed to play in the Christmas Miracle Mart Junior B All-Star tournament).
