

Year review

The week of April 29 was particularly fruitful for Georgetown gymnasts as Dave Boodle from Georgetown District High School won the OFSAA (provincial) high school crown for the senior boys division. The entire senior gymnast team placed second overall.

Meanwhile, Sara Aggias of the Cambridge Kips gymnastics club was making a name for herself on the international circuit when she returned from Cottbus, East Germany and placed 17th overall against some of the best gymnasts in the world.

During the first week of May, Boyd Hoddinott was crowned the six-time winner of the Georgetown Racquet Club's annual club trophy. The GDHS track team maintained their excellence in their field by winning against ten schools in their own Rebel Relays meet.

In skating 16 year old Terri Lamb completed all of her dance medals and became the only female member of the Georgetown figure skating club to attain this level for dance.

Rugger began at Acton High School for the first time and the boys fared well in competition. May 13 saw the Acton Redmen down their Brampton opponents in two games 8-0 and 22-0.

In bowling Georgetown's Julie McCorry became the Junior Girls Singles National champion after her first place finish in Edmonton, the week of May 13. For the 12-year old McCorry, it was the first time she had ever reached national competition.

May 20 was the week of the Halton Hills Recreation Department's Honor and Recognition Awards Banquet night. Councillors took their turns in presenting awards in the third consecutive year for the banquet night.

Georgetown's District high school track team faltered in the Peel-Halton track championships with only Doug Smith distinguishing himself when he set a new Halton record in the senior 1500 m race.

JUNE 1981

June 3 was the week in which referee for the NHL, John McCauley was made the NHL's Director of Officiating, a post seen as putting McCauley in the position of eventually taking over all of Scotty Morrison's duties as Referee-In-Chief.

The Halton Hills third annual Mayor's Race went on without a hitch and Doug Smith was claimed the winner of the 5.5 km event. Children and adults of all ages participated in the 5.5 km and 11.0 km run while pancakes and sausages awaited hungry racers after the ordeal was over.

June 24 was the week where the GDHS awarded their athlete of the year to Dave Boodle for the boys; the girls were represented by Beth Stewart and Louise Morwick.

Acton's first ever Blathon attracted hearty runners in the Y Men's club sponsored event. A biathlon competitor requires the twin attributes of having fast pedalling legs and a marathoner's stamina.

Winners in the blathon were: Scott Lee, Ron Johns, Scott Altonby, Rob Warrington, Steve Robertson, Stewart Robertson.

United Fire Safety pillage Finchurst

By L. THIBAUT
Herald Special

The United Fire Safety Minor Pee Wees played aggressive hockey on Sunday, Dec. 27 and came up with a convincing 7-1 win over Finchurst in their first game of the Thornhill Thunderbird International Hockey Tournament.

Strengthened by the return of Jason Arnold who had been out for two weeks with a back injury, the team chalked up a 5-0 lead before yielding one goal early in the third period.

But the steady goaltending of Steve Eastwood and Paul Howlett held the opponents at bay as the home team added two more goals. Leading the scoring was Trent Burton with two unassisted goals and an assist, and Jeff Brady also with two goals and one assist.

The scoring was rounded out by Trevor Harkley, assisted by Frazer Dougal and Alain Thibault; by John Lorito, assisted by Ken Langdon and David Harris; and by Mark Shepherd who also assisted in two of his teammates' goals.

Perhaps the team was sharp as a result of the confidence they gained in their tune-up game for the Tournament against the triple A Richmond Hill team on Dec. 22.

That game was a closely fought match where the opponents barely edged us by 3-2.

Scores were by John Lorito and Jeff Brady, with assists going to Ken Langdon, Donnie Cruise and Alain Thibault.

In any case, the squad displayed the type of strong team play that coaches Rich Lorito and Paul Morrow hoped would take them right to the finals. The Pee Wees were to meet the Bert Robinson team on Monday and Hillcrest on Tuesday, with the championship game scheduled for Tuesday afternoon.
