Youth vie for YBC crown

The month of January is the qualifying month in the "4 Steps To Stardom" Y.B.C. national championship trail. The senior girls headline the best efforts of the young bowlers at Georgetown Bowl with the top qualifiers all over 600. Jane Hicks is leading the group with 682 followed by Roberta Burke, Debbie Lane, Teresa Maslach, Margaret Jessop and Kelly McCorry.

Shane Lowin with 676 and Jerome Stone 663 are having a close battle for the lead among the senior boys.

The juniors must still be feeling the effects of the holidays and found the going tough, far below the standard necessary. Julie McCorry dropped to 666 from her 700's necessary as defending national champion.

The junior boys were led by 'dark-horse' David Rice and Brent Oatchuk both with 613 followed by David Hicks, Jim Carpenter, Marc Bassett and Anthony Larsen. In the hantam division, with a concentrated effort Eddie Doyle pulled ahead of his rivals with 533, followed by Barry McLean 512 and Chris Somers.

Sandra Weeks was well in advance of the girls with 550, far ahead of her closest competitor Michelle Webster 463.
