

Wintario grant helps toy lenders

Herald Special
The North Halton Toy Lending Library received a most needed Christmas gift last week in the form of a $1,682 Wintario grant.

The grant was applied for by the North Halton Association for the Mentally Retarded (NHAMR) on behalf of the toy library and was awarded to help operate and develop this new community service.

The money covers about half of the costs already incurred and will go to repay part of the loan from the NHAMR.

In a letter accompanying the grant, Reuben Baetz, the minister responsible for Wintario, congratulated the Toy Library for "enriching community life."

The library, located in the children's section of the Halton Hills Library and Cultural Centre, lends toys to children.

There is already a waiting list for membership in the toy library. As new toys are purchased, membership can be increased. Donations of toys or money are gratefully accepted. Cheques should be made payable to the North Halton Association for the Mentally Retarded and designated for use by the toy lending library.

Hours of operation have been extended. They are Tuesdays, 3:30 - 5 p.m., Wednesdays, 10:30 - 11:30 a.m., Thursdays, 7:00 - 8 p.m., Saturdays 10:00 - 11:30 a.m., as of Jan. 5.

up to 12 years of age who are library members. High quality toys have been carefully selected to provide maximum stimulation and learning for both handicapped and non-handicapped children. A toy catalogue describing the uses and benefits of each toy helps parents to guide their children in choosing toys.

Seeking that 'partial'

Duplicate bridge club

Today's hand played by the members of the Georgetown Bridge Club last Tuesday (Dec. 29) is another good example of both pairs having a reasonable try at a good partial for their team. It will depend a great deal on the bid that West makes on the second round as to whether the north-south pair is allowed to find their 5-diamond partial.

The top boards will go to the defense in this auction either by East-West overbidding to 4 hearts or North-South bidding clubs or diamonds above the 3 level. This was the hand.
