Georgetown 4 Burlington 0

The hometown came out hustling as did Burlington and both teams remained scoreless for the first period. Georgetown opened the scoring at the 5:07 mark of the second getting a total of three.

They potted their last goal of the game at 7:02 of the third. Goalgetters in this game were Mike Chiovitti, Bill Herman, Stephen Fletcher and Rory Kennedy.

Earning assists were Stephen Fletcher, Mark Zebede, Mike Chiovitti (2), Mark Dunning and Mark Moody.

Earning a well deserved shut out between the pipes was Joe Balsion playing a super game.

Georgetown 2 Kanata 1

This game saw Georgetown come out the winners against a very strong team from Ottawa.

Georgetown hit the scoreboard first with Mike Chiovitti scoring from Mark Moody.

Both teams played very strong games and the second period remained scoreless. At the 6:32 mark of the third Kanata scored to tie up the game.

As the time wound down the fans thought it would go into overtime. With 44 seconds left in the game Tim Bennett broke the tie with a goal, assisted by Mark Zebede and Terry Dixon.

Chris (Chico) Pearson played an outstanding game in net and came out to challenge a lot of shots. In the first two games it was constant hustle and good play on everyone's part that brought the hometown out as winners.

The championship game for the AA centres was played at 2:00 against Stratford. The hometown lost this game at the thirty second mark of the first period.

The boys tried hard to come back but to no avail as Stratford kept putting the puck in the net to a tune of 9-0.
