'Fun Day' for figure-skaters

Jennifer Passas is lent a helping hand by amateur coach Adrienne Lilly during last week's Fun Day celebrated by the Georgetown Figure Skating club. Next week other skaters from the club will participate in a Royal Bank Junior Olympics program which encourages skill and competition against boys and girls divided into teams. The Junior Olympic program takes the place of the skating carnival which will not be held this year.

Amateur coach Tammie Brady of the Georgetown Figure Skating club gives Adrienne Haggie a pick-up of sorts as they glide to an afternoon of fun during their pre-school class.

Liftech Atom Tier 2s are outscoring all opposition

Georgetown Liftech Tier 2 proved ride hosts at the Shelburne Atom Tournament January 30 outscoring the opposition 8-3. Although Durham drew first blood David Inglis came back to tie the game two minutes later with a difficult side angle shot.

Again Durham fought back counting another with less than two minutes remaining in the first period. It was then Mike Wilkins' turn to tie the game with only 32 seconds remaining in the opening frame.

Georgetown then opened the flood gates scoring three times in less than one minute. Bill Tutt began the explosion with a wrist shot from point blank range.

The assist went to Dale McNiven. Then Steven Sutherland unleashed another wrist shot for the first of his three goals scored in a row. The first earned an assist from Stephen Lee followed by Don Guest and the third again from Don Guest and Shane Reid.

Special guest visit

The Candy Co Pee Wees of Georgetown had a special surprise waiting for them after their game last Saturday afternoon. Their sponsor, John Candy of television's SCTV fame, showed up to watch their game and offer his congratulations. Candy is the sponsor of the Candy Co team and he watched the locals rally from a 1-1 tie to a 3-1 victory over their opponents.
