

Ballinafad 4-H club news

The Ballinafad 4-H club held its first Bread Baking club Saturday, with Betty Koperdraad and Helga Schwarz as leaders. This year, the club has three new members, Lisa Evans, Jennifer Munroe and Aimee O'Connor. Broada Leenders was elected president. This will be her 12th club and she'll be receiving her provincial honours. There's still plenty of room to join, so for anyone interested, there will be another meeting this Saturday at the Ballinafad United Church.

Limehouse Church in good shape

By MRS. A. W. BENTON, Herald Correspondent 877-6489. We extend sympathy to James Stansbury in the death of his father last week. The annual congregational meeting of Limehouse Presbyterian Church was held last Wednesday evening. Reports were read from all departments and all appeared in good standing. Rev. Peter Barrow was chairman and Bill Kern was secretary. Lunch was served afterwards. High scorers at the W. I. church Jan. 27 were Mrs. A. J. Benton and Glendon Scott. Lone hands were won by Mrs. Booth and Al Wilson. Lunch was enjoyed after. Come to the next church Feb. 10 at 8 p.m.

Normal New arrivals for Thurlbecks

By KAY WILSON, Herald Correspondent. Pinegrove church last Monday night had five tables in play. Winners were Jean Brander, Marie Murray, Earnie Miller and Claude McLaughlin. Lucky draw: Marg Toit. The Normal church had nine tables in play Thursday. Winners were Elsie Jarvis, Isabelle Thompson, Sadie Davidson and Marie Robertson. Lone hands: Garth McIlvray. Door prize Edith Ditchfield. Lunch was provided by Eva Presswood, Myrtle Zillio and Velma Sinclair. Congratulations to David and Bonnie Thurlbeck of Normal on the birth of their baby boy, Scott Alexander, last Monday at Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital. The annual meeting of Normal United Church was held Sunday following the church service. A buffet luncheon was enjoyed, after which Rev. Ridley, with secretary Glen Laidlaw, conducted the reading of the minutes. All reports showed a good year and there was a discussion period on outstanding areas. New treasurer Fred Clarkson will be taking over from Marie Crawford. Bill Laidlaw was voted in for a five-year term as elder. Due to weather conditions, the meeting was adjourned early with some of the business left over until a later date.

Aim darts at roast

It is with deepest regret we report that two of our comrades have died: Roy Wiggins and Frank Smith. Our deepest sympathy is extended to their families. Comrades A. Emond, Stan Swan, T. Gadd and B. Moore are in Georgetown Hospital and Dick Fullerton is in Toronto General. The Publoons will be entertaining in the Lounge Saturday night. This Saturday afternoon is the dart shoot for five-pound roasts at five games for $3. See Bill or Gib. For all members of the Initiation Team, there will be a practice at 2 p.m. Feb. 7. Our ladies auxiliary won the zone dart tourney last Saturday, the team comprised of Rita Rodiger, Jan Emmerson, Rae McAusland and Mary Franks. Congratulations, ladies, for a job well done. Car club winners were Tom Goss, Sam Glasby, Tul Harrison, Helen Wilks, A. Knight and Ray Inglis. The next car club fees will be increased to $48 or $2 per week. The weekly prizes will be increased but the final draw of the car and prizes will remain the same.

GIVING DAD A HAND

When the snow falls and falls and falls, like it did Sunday, the whole family has to get out there and shovel, shovel, shovel. Two-year old Christine Dickinson of Debra Boulevard in Georgetown was no exception: bundled up against the cold, she fell in step behind her dad, Doug, and chucked a few shovelfulls aside. Although Halton Hills schools were open Monday after the "Big Dump of '82", as some are already calling it, school buses stayed at the depot, mail service was interrupted and police were kept busy with traffic accidents, including one local fatality. Ruth Kelly new president of St. John UCW

Herald Special. The annual meeting of St. John's United Church Women was held Jan. 18. Members gathered for supper at 6:30 in the church hall. Unit G. conducted an appropriate worship service for the New Year. Those taking part were Margaret Atherley, Frances Crichton, Tib Runham, Lydia Snow and Nora Williams.

Reports from the various departments of the group were received. The financial report given by treasurer Norma Nokes showed that 1981 was a successful year in this department. Besides the group's annual commitment to Missions and Service, it also donated to Meals-on-Wheels, the Contact Centre, Bible Society, John Milton Society, Fred Victor Mission, The Bridge, Activan, Good Neighbour Service and various departments of our local church.

Lauretta Mills chaired the meeting for the election of officers for the 1982 executive.

Ruth Forgrave presented the slate as follows: Past President - Ruth Forgrave; President - Ruth Kelly; Vice-President - Margaret Atherley; Secretary - Doreen Denmore; Treasurer - Norma Nokes; Manse representative - Marjorie Bailey; Envelope secretary - Shirley Gray; Programme Committee - Hilda Darcie, Elizabeth Shore; Outreach Committee - Tib Runham, Frances Crichton; Social Co-ordinator - Kay McCumber.

Following the election, Rev. J. Davison installed the new executive.

The members approved a suggestion brought forward by Doreen Denmore that the U.C.W. sponsor a Spring Fair to be held at the church May 8. This will include a yard sale, silent auction, bake sale and luncheon.
