By HARALD BRANSCH
GDHS Correspondent

Toronto rock group FM headlines Georgetown District High School's second concert of the season Feb. 11 at 7:30 p.m. Tickets go on sale this week at the school.

School council vice-president and concert convenor Dave Mason says at least 800 tickets must be sold for the event to show a profit. Students with cards can buy tickets for $4 while those without cards and non-students must pay $5. Non-students also need a student to vouch for them as well as permission from either vice-principal.

Well regarded across Ontario as a progressive rock band, FM is touring locally before releasing its fourth album. Previous albums are Black Noise, Surveillance and City of Fear.
