Akers Thompson has six goal game against Acton Sunday

Akers' Doug Thompson became the league's top goal scorer with a six goal performance last Sunday against Acton in a 7-0 victory.

The Akers-Clark forward has 33 goals and 22 assists for 55 points and is seven points away from the leading point-getter Brian Beaumont.

Thanks to the help from teammate Chris Milne who set up all three first period goals, Thompson collected a hat trick in the opening period. Finn Arnold and Jim Blair also assisted on the tallies.

In the second period Thompson went to work for two more while Milne collected two more assists. Jim Blair and Finn Arnold also helped out with single assists.

Chris Milne broke the Thompson string of consecutive goals with his third period shot at the 10:44 mark for a 6-0 lead. Then Thompson broke through for his last goal of the game on a shot assisted by Jim Blair at the 16:35 mark of the period.

De Boer's 5
Wilson's 5
Wilson's Insurance Brian McKenzie gave his team a 2-1

lead at the end of the first period, but De Boer's came back for a final 9-5 win. Marty Weaven scored the lone De Boer's goal in the first period.

Wilson's went ahead 3-1 on Chris Broadbent's goal from Crawford Bell and Doug Grinyer. Then De Boer's went to work with four consecutive goals from teammates Merel Hache, Tony Perkins, Doug Pemberton and Ray Peacock. Assisting on the goals were Paul Allison, Ray Peacock, Marty Weaven, Bill Allison, Roger Chapman and Doug Hills.

Merel Hache made the score 5-3 for De Boer's with his goal from Craig Fleming and Paul Allison just one minute into the third period.

Wilson's 2-1 to life when Crawford Bell scored midway through the period from Chris Broadbent and Jim Hillhouse.

Craig Fleming avenged the goal by his shot which beat the Wilson netminder assisted by Merel Hache and Doug Pemberton. Steve Crossman put Wilson's back on the scoreboard with his goal to make the score 7-5.

But De Boer's put the game away when Doug

Pemberton scored an empty net goal unassisted, then Ray Peacock scored from Craig Fleming and Doug Pemberton.

Don's 4
Norval's 9
Norval's Hollywood Tavern sprinted to a 4-1 lead over Don's Auto Service in the first period, then survived a late three goal charge by Don's for a final 9-4 victory.

Dave Holmes, Mike Richmond, Larry Peterson and Brian Beaumont all connected for goals in the first period for Hollywood while Dan Engley added the lone Don's Auto tally.

Hollywood scored two more in the second period thanks to Larry Peterson and Brian Beaumont.

Then in the third period Beaumont collected three goals for a total of five for the contest in a period of five minutes. Beaumont scored his first third period goal at 5:30 and his last at 10:53.

Don's came back undaunted as Curt Brownlee, Gerry Milne and John Kwant showed their team had lots of staying power with the league leading Hollywood Tavern team.

Meet The Herald's feature team

The very successful North Halton Sports Camp from the Georgetown Minor Hockey Support Group travelled to Buffalo and ended up winning the South Towns Tenth Annual International Mites tournament. Seen here are the players: Terry Metler (goal), Bobby DeZeeuw, John Jickling, Duane

Novice Reps win in Buffalo

Two weeks ago the Georgetown Novice Reps travelled to Buffalo and proceeded to win the South Towns Tenth Annual International Mites tournament.

The boys played their hearts out and came away with a number of reasons to be proud of their performance.

Against Wheatfield Adam Hills had another good game, scoring two while Trevor Ellineky and Adam Hagen had the other goals.

Sean Guistini saved the day against West Seneca in game four as he scored two goals in a 2-0 win over West Seneca.

'Pet-bad' trap

A recent news story from Oakville tells of a German Shepherd dog caught in a leg hold trap. Of course this was another of the "pet-bad trapper" stories, but several facts were not considered.

Personally I feel sorry for the dog, at least as far as its wounds are concerned. BUT the big unanswered question is, what was the dog doing loose, and in an area where dogs had no business being.

The dog was not licensed, and the owners were being searched for. A timely news release and story by my friend Jack Davis of the Angler and Hunter magazine (both stories written prior to the above noted incident) tell it like it is. Jack brings out the fact that "pets do kill deer" as well as other wildlife.

The Ministry of Natural Resources put out the news release and tells of some of the problems with domestic pets and those released to the wild. Heavy snow falls this winter make it hard for the deer, especially when there is a freezing rain or a warm spell that melts the surface snow with a subsequent freezing.

DEER BREAK

The snow crust will support the weight of a dog or wolf but the deer break through and flounder. Even without snow cover, deer can be run to death as a result of depletion of food reserves in the system or even shock.

Ministry personnel have even found raccoons dug out of winter dens and mauled to death by dogs. Local dogs are the culprit here.

Unforgettable moments like these are shared by campers who venture into Ontario's northern wilds, such as Rainbow Falls Provincial Park on Lake Superior's spectacular north shore. See the special Provincial Park exhibit at the Sportmen's Show.

It is an offence under the Game and Fish Act in Ontario to allow your dog to run loose in an area that is inhabited by deer.

The maximum fine is $5,000 (five thousand) and the dog could be killed on sight by a conservation officer. The law states if you live in an area considered rural, it is up to you to prevent your dog from running deer or other wildlife. In other words your dog is not to run at large.

KNOW YOUR FACTS

This is not the first time I have written of this problem in this column, and I always get a reaction. If you don't like it, call the MNR at (519) 659-9256 collect. Before you tell me off and say I don't like dogs, know your facts. I love dogs, and would never allow one to run free, that is why I don't own one. I could not stand to see it confined.

More on the Izaak Walton fly fishing forum; workshops by Ken Robbins, Phil Kettle, Don Moore, Gary Berger, Ted Niemeyer and Christine and Michael Fong. Without stating every aspect of the program, let's just say there will be something for every fly fisherman, both novice and expert alike.

The banquet will even suit non-fisherspersons and may make fishers out of them. For more information, call me or write Bill Christmas at 566 Turner Drive, Burlington, Ont. L7L 2W7 (416) 639-8433.

Several people have asked me for the address of Mate Quality products, the company that makes the glass cleaner for wood stoves etc. Write them at 2 Rosetta Street, Georgetown, L7G 3P2 or phone 877-0868.

The recent photography contest that I mentioned in a separate column some time back, will come to fruition on Feb. 20 (this Saturday) at House Sol, 45 Charles Street in Georgetown. Meet the photographers who took the winning photos from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. The show runs until March 11.

The Canadian National Sportsman's Show will run March 19 to 28 at the Coliseum, Exhibition Place, Toronto. By then it will be spring. I promise you or at least close to it with mild weather and maybe even a spring rain.

More news on the show in next week's column, but to wet your appetite; Real Trout fishing will be back again, this year with a co-sponsor with the Toronto Sportsman's Club of Stren Fishing Lines. Be sure to book these dates now.

Bowling

2nd step to stardom

4 STEPS TO STARDOM SECOND STEP ZONE FINALS

On Saturday, Feb. 13, at Town and Country Lanes, Guelph, the "best of the best" bowlers in Central Ontario determined the bantam and junior representatives in the provincial round of the Canadian championships.

Georgetown's contenders were unlucky in making the charmed circle. In the bantam girls, Sandra Weika, her first try amongst the elite, still finished in the top ten while Barry McLean ran into tough competition and faded out of the picture. Julie McCorry hit the low point of her bowling career by placing fifth, while Jim Carpenter placed third in the juniors.

On Sunday, the junior girls team under Andy Parent, held off all comers to win by 60 odd pins. The happy five going to the provincials are Judy Carroll, Tracie Peggie, Cheryl McElroy, Karen Doyle and Lynn Norton.

The Georgetown junior boys team rolled an above average 912 the first game, but were down 224 pins to Park Royals fantastic junior score of 1136.

Nevertheless, fighting 'head-to-head' in the second game, Anne Nicholson perked up her boys and they defeated the Park 1059 to 900, picking up 159 of the deficit.

But in the final game they could not make up the rest and finished in second place to the leaders. The GT boys led by the 970(779) of David Hicks were Mark Miller, Marc Bassett, Brent Gatschuk and Anthony Larsen.

This coming Saturday (Feb. 20) the bantam teams (girls and boys) will again be keeping Georgetown in the forefront of bowling at Park Royal, Miss.

The senior boys and girls teams and singles will close out the zone competition at Applewood Lanes, Miss. There is a strong belief and expectation in the success of most of the competitors from Georgetown.

"PEPSI" HIGH SCHOOL CHAMPIONSHIP

Sunday in Streetsville, Julie McCorry, the Canadian Junior Champion, after the disastrous lowest point of her bowling life - on Saturday, rebounded like a true champion. McCorry took on the senior bowlers and placing third won a place on the Central Ontario girls' team together with Jane Hicks who came fifth.

Roberta Burke just missed out for the mixed team by a couple of pins. 'Bert' who will be in the elite singles zone finals next Sunday, says she learned a big lesson and with diligent daily preparation this week is confident of a top effort.

Among the boys, the sole qualifier from Georgetown was Ted Maslach, winning a place on Central Ontario's boys' team.

DEADLINE FLASH

The young adult team from Georgetown Bowl repeated again this year at the Oshawa $1650 tour on the YABA Money Tour, in the scratch team division.

In the scratch singles, in the final standings, Rick Gourille with a score of 620 for two games lost out by 6 pins in the knockout round. Robin Richardson also placed in the money among the ladies.
