

College sweethearts marry at Knox

Fellow students while attending Sheridan College in Brampton, former Georgetown residents Kevin Dean Paynter and Rebecca Jane Ellis were married Nov. 7, 1981, in an afternoon ceremony in Knox Presbyterian Church.

In the double ring ceremony, the bride was given in marriage by her father, William Ellis. Her mother, Patricia Ellis, dressed in a grey knit gown with a red rose corsage, received guests at the reception at the Royal Canadian Legion. The groom is the son of James and Ruth Paynter.

The minister was Rev. Peter Barrow and Barbara Jacks was the organist. The bride wore a white lace gown with leg of mutton sleeves and a cathedral train. Her flowers were pink roses, miniature white carnations and baby's breath on a white lace fan.

Mr. Paynter's best man was Timmons resident Glenn Schwartz and his ushers were Jon Ellis and Gary Foster. The groom and his attendants were dressed in royal blue tuxedos.

Cathy Paynter, a cousin of the groom, was the maid of honor and she and bridesmaids Pauline Boone and Lynn Bennett wore Victorian-style knit dresses with lace-trimmed chiffon jackets. The maid of honor wore pale pink while the bridesmaids were dressed in frost rose. Miss Baker wore a pink Swiss dot dress with lace trim.

All bride's attendants had pink, burgundy and white carnations, mums and baby's breath.

For something old, the bride wore her grandmother's diamond.

At the reception, the groom's mother, dressed in a pale blue gown with a white rose corsage, received guests.

Following the reception, the couple honeymooned in Niagara Falls and now live in Brampton.

Norval

McFarlane re-elected NCA pres.

By KAY WILSON
Herald Correspondent
Norval Community Association held their annual meeting Feb. 18.

Nominating committee of Joan Carter, Charlie Carney and Walter Ridley brought in the following report:

President Hugh McFarlane was re-elected. Other officers are secretary Joyce Hutton and directors Pete Pomeroy, Deanna Reed, Linda Howse, Linda Todd, Walter Ridley and Earl Benson.

The main item of business on the agenda is the Festive Holiday Weekend for May 22, 23 and 24.

Saturday night will be the Blossom Ball. Details will be announced within a couple of weeks.

Sunday night there will be an inter-denominational church service. Monday morning a yard sale and Business Display by local merchants and at night a parade and fireworks.

Norval will quietly merge with the larger community and lose its identity completely if a lot of good people do nothing. Hopefully, area people have enough interest to come out and lend their support to this worthwhile cause, and keep Norval on the map.

Lunch was served by the Norval Neighbors.

Pinegrove Community Club met at the home of Ruth and Francis Thompson Feb. 15 at 8 p.m.

Gertrude McGee presided and after business called on Irene Hunter to introduce John and Delore New, both musically inclined teachers who presented an interlude of duets and solos. They sang several love songs for Valentine's Day interspersed with readings.

One of the highlights was in the form of a dialogue "The Touch of the Master's Hand". The last part was devoted to more serious numbers with bible readings interspersed with singing.

This was a beautiful half hour of music with something for everyone.

Ruth Thompson then introduced Rev. John Griffin who sang several selections and accompanied himself on the guitar, one song was "Ghost Riders in the Sky."

the HERALD Community

Last but by no means least, Christine Nicholls played several selections on her piano accordion.

Everyone enjoyed this lovely musical evening, and Irene Hunter presented each guest with a Valentine box of chocolates.

The "News" and Christine are neighbors of the Thompsons, while Rev. Griffin is minister of Hillcrest and Bethel United churches.

Lunch was served by the hostesses assisted by Mary Schertzel and Vera Thatcher and a social time enjoyed.

Several Norval people have been holidaying down south. Anne Wilson along with George and Ethel Wilson spent a week in the Barbados.

Larry and Velda May are spending ten days at the Maya's winter home in Fort Lauderdale. As well as motoring down through the Keys.

Unit 1 of Norval United Church met at the home of Mrs. Guy Wilson Feb. 18, 2 p.m. President Marion Laird opened the meeting and called on Dorothy McLean who gave a lovely devotional on "Friendship". She read several poems including "Little Heart Gifts" also one of the songs "Joni" wrote, "We are the Reason". Scriptures were from the Gospel of John, closing with prayer which was a poem on Love.

Catherine Laidlaw read the minutes. Some dates to remember — a shower March 16 for Debbie Reid; Unit 2 will serve a luncheon to Presbytery on March 17; also a sale March 27.

Members are asked to write to a young Korean law student who has been thrown in prison for no known cause.

Catherine Laidlaw had the study when she read portions from the book "The Second Mile".

Hill call was answered by 12 members and one visitor, by reading a verse on Friendship.

We were all asked to remember the Grahams in their time of trouble.

Lunch was served by the hostesses assisted by Marion Laird.

Several Norval area people attended the euchre sponsored by the Georgetown Fair Board at Webb's Greenhouse Feb. 18, at 8:15 p.m. The tables were set up in the showroom with the spring flowers and green plants providing a beautiful background for the 19 tables in play.

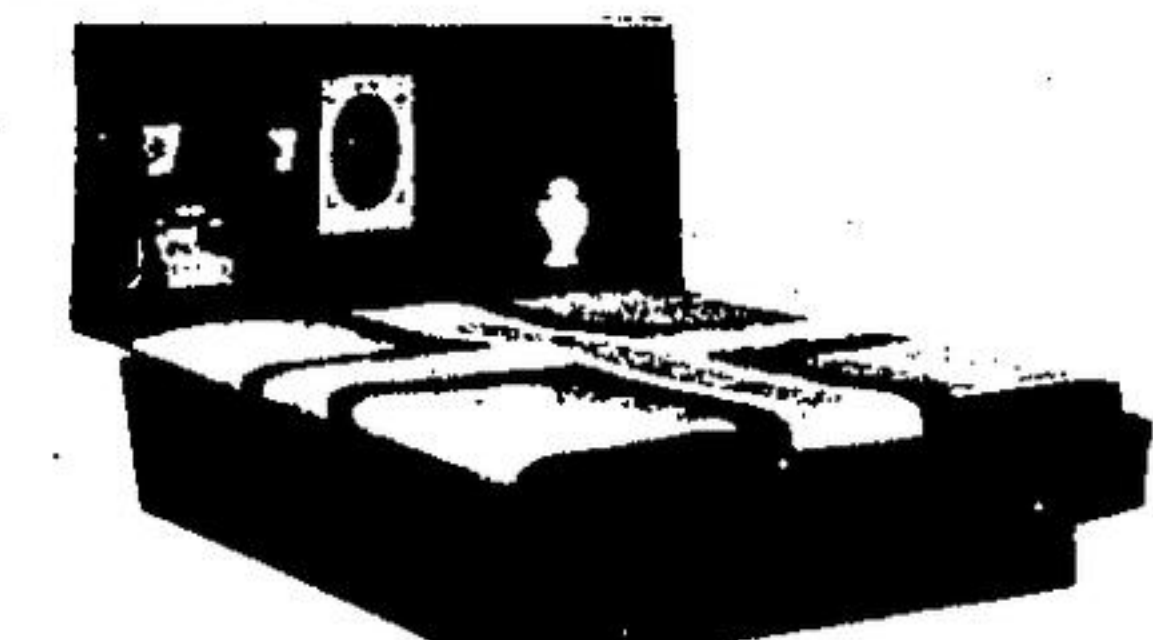

Winners were Grace Cook, Evelyn Wilkie, Spencer Wilson, Keith Webb, Lucky Draw-Madge Noble, Lucky Tally - Elsie Jarvie.

Lunch was served by the committee of Pearl Burt, Jessie Milton and Jessie Fisher. Doris Lindsay president of the ladies section presented the prizes, and moved a vote of thanks to the Webbs for hosting this lovely evening.

WI will learn about simple home repairs

By MRS. JOHN BELLBODDY
Herald Correspondent
The Public Relations meeting of the W.I. was held Feb. 18 at the home of Mrs. John Bird with 25 ladies attending.

Pres. Mrs. G. Treviramus opened the meeting with the ode and Collect. Secretary Mrs. John Ruddle read last month's minutes and called the roll which was "Name a fish and how you would serve it". Many delightful ways were given to prepare and serve many kinds.

The course "Simple Repairs in the Home" is coming in March and Mrs. Bird offered to act as a resource help. Reports on the euchre just past and the coming dance March 27 were given. Mrs. John McInabb told of a quilt being started and blocks given out to willing members.

Mrs. Bob Alexander and Mrs. Clayton Wilson were in charge of the program which was on New Brunswick. It told of many places of interest and the livelihood of the people. Forty per cent of them speak french; there is one teacher to every 27 students and no kindergarten; school age is 7 to 16 years; singer Anne Murray received her bachelor of Arts at University of Fredericton. It is a compact, friendly vacation land.

Also taking parts were Pat Stark, Ismay Bird, Doreen Wickson, Muriel and Zeta Nurse and Mary Jane Wingfield. Courtesies by Mrs. Ford Wickson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken MacGillivary of Brome, Quebec, have been visiting their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Nurse and baby Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nurse recently.
