

Lorne Scots new honorary Lt.-Col.

A much-decorated Canadian soldier who saw action in Belgium and France during World War II and retired in 1961 to raise fruits and vegetables in Thornbury has been appointed new Honorary Lieutenant-Colonel of the Lorne Scots (Peel-Dufferin-Halton Regiment).

Lt.-Col. Arthur Kemp C.D. first joined the regiment in 1946 as a private and was promoted to sergeant that same year. He was commissioned in early 1948 and reached the rank of major six years later.

In December 1967, he was promoted to Lt. Col. and appointed Commanding Officer of the Lorne Scots. Before relinquishing command in October, 1981, he was appointed Honorary Aide de Camp to then-Governor General Roland Michener.

During World War Two, Colonel Kemp served overseas in England, Belgium and France for which he received the 1939-1945 Star, France-Germany Star, Defence Medal, Canadian Volunteer Service Medal and Clasp and the Victory Medal. Colonel Kemp was also awarded the Canadian Forces Decoration and in 1987 he was awarded the Centennial Medal.

When he retired in 1961, Colonel Kemp remained active, becoming one of the founding members of the Regimental Association, and was appointed its first president in 1972.

Colonel Kemp has always been a staunch supporter of the alliance between the regiment and the Royal Regiment of Fusiliers and keeps an ongoing liaison with them.

He is a member of the Royal Canadian Military Institute Toronto, and the Royal Hamilton Military Institute Hamilton.

In private life, Colonel Kemp is semi-retired and has a fruit and vegetable farm near Thornbury with his wife Helen.

Getting to know duplicate

To follow last week's article concerning that vital opening lead, here is another example for defence to practice.

Cover all the hands except the north hand in today's example. The bidding has progressed with West (your RHO - right hand opponent) bidding a pass and you passing as well. East opens one (1) spade. You pass again and East now bids 1 no trump. South passes, West bids two (2) spades and the auction dies.

What do you lead? This was the hand played by the Georgetown Club.

THE ANALYSIS:
Perhaps the best way for East to handle his weak three-suited hand is to open one heart and rebid 1 NT or 2 clubs. Neither rebid is satisfactory; 1 NT implies two-card support for spades; 2 clubs tends to show a five-card heart suit. East's rebid, however, is unlikely to affect the placing of the final contract, which should be 2 spades.

The fate of the hand rests primarily on the opening lead. If North leads a diamond and declarer fails to duck, the defenders can take six tricks. When North wins the ace of spades, he can put partner in with the king of diamonds for a ruff. North cashes the ace of hearts (the key play) and gets out with anything.

When South wins the spade queen he plays through a fourth diamond, promoting North's 10 of spades into the setting trick. If North fails to cash the ace of hearts after ruffing diamonds for the first time, declarer can shed his singleton heart on the fourth round of diamonds and rely on a club finesse for 8 tricks. Against any other lead, West has a considerable easier time making 2 spades and might even come out with an over-trick.

North-South winners were Duke Wilson and Julie Ioannidis followed by Eile Whitham and Norma Maynard. Rob Thomas and Blair Gamble were third.

East-West winners were Roy Turton and Peter Gifford. Peter Kakro and John Flanagan were second. The third and fourth spot were tied by the Ayer team and the Hughes test.

The Georgetown Bridge Club continues to extend a cordial welcome to the area bridge players to join the club each Tuesday night for a bridge game. The club meets at the Legion Hall on Mill Street and game time is 7:45 p.m. Come and play bridge.
