Bantam-Senior bowlers at the top

Following the trend set on Valentine week-end in the junior bowlers from Georgetown (Bowling), the bantam and the senior YBC team bowlers placed Georgetown at the top of the 18 centres in Central Ontario.

This, the second step in the "4 Steps To Stardom" Canadian Championships, produced three firsts, two seconds and a third out of a possible six. Now, G.T. bowlers are on the way to the third step, the provincials, in Toronto on March 14th.

The winning bantam girls were Michelle Webster, Toni McClements, Leanne Burt, Valerie Sabo and Lisa Brading with the coaching efforts of Shirley Chaplin. Ralph Miller led his top winning contingent of bantam boys, Brian Bell, Eddie Doyle, Christopher Somers, Michael Larocque and Ian Vint, to a tumultuous cheering success. Bouquets must go to all the parents and friends and their lost voices for making their success possible.

The senior girls, under the direction of seasoned Joan Archibald, tried valiantly to make up 71 pins but could not find the knockout punch to take over first place.

The senior boys with Chris Burke, were the underdogs of the G.T. contingent in the tournament but Paul Chaplin's opening 311 put them in contention. However, Shane Lowin, Rob Quinton, Brinley Hole and Ted Maslach were unable to hit their peak to finish the job, falling behind by 89 pins into third place.

Midgets down Burlington 7-5

Georgetown Tri-County, Tier II Midgets travelled to Burlington for the last time in regular season play last Monday night.

They left with a hard fought 7-5 win and a firm hold of first place for the season.

The team, sponsored by Norval's Hollywood Tavern came out in passing, skating form, only to lose this form to four quick Burlington goals in the first period.

Peter Rembish put Georgetown back in the game with a blistering shot from the point at 1:21 of the second period. The Midgets fought back with a hat trick from Rick Greenwood and Gary Morrow taking a pass in full flight from Tom O'Brien, slapped a blistering shot into the upper right hand corner.

Burlington did not take to Georgetown's aggressive plain hockey and resorted to interference, roughing and fighting. Burlington had 24 minor penalties plus a game misconduct. Georgetown added some insurance with a goal by Captain Mark Waters on a rinkwide pass from Kevin McCartney.

The final goal came with both teams at full strength when Bob Boucher tucked in a short pass from Ian Seaton.

"It was a heck of a game to win" said coach Rick Facchini "any team down four goals and comes back with that intensity has got to be championship quality".

Facchini has reason to be proud, the team played again Tues. night skating to a 6-3 decision over Orangeville.

Clancy at hockey banquet

King Clancy, former Maple Leaf defenseman and currently right-hand man to Garden's president Harold Ballard will be coming to Georgetown's Hockey Heritage banquet March 8.

The announcement was made last Wednesday after plans were confirmed by Walter Bianchi, who is a friend of Ballard and Clancy.

Bianchi is a Georgetown resident and owns Sunny Acre Farms. An avid hockey fan who has supported minor rep teams for many years in Georgetown, Bianchi is also an avid Maple Leaf fan. Often he can be seen at the Gardens watching a game and frequenting the Garden's Hot Stove Lounge.

Through their mutual interest in horse racing, Bianchi eventually met and became friends with Clancy and Ballard.

King Clancy has been asked to speak and sit at the head table at the banquet. He will not be the formal guest speaker, but has agreed to talk at the banquet.

Fire Safety defeat rivals

By L. THIBAUT
Herald Special

The highlight of a busy week for the United Fire Safety Minor Pee Wees was an exhibition game on Thursday when they met Thornhill, the team that had defeated them in the championship game of the Thornhill Tournament over the Christmas Holidays.

Our boys were determined to avenge the loss and totally dominated the game, earning a 4-1 victory.

The defence were particularly solid, seldom allowing the opponents to get into good scoring position.

Jason Arnold led the offence with two goals, along with Lohr Lorito who notched three assists.

Jeff Brady got a goal and an assist while Mark Shepherd bagged two assists. Ken Langdon scored the fourth goal while Davin Ciglen also earned an assist.

It was satisfying for the team to know that they could have gone all the way in the Thornhill Tournament.

Steve Eastwood and Paul Howlett shared goaltending duties and came within a hair of a shutout.

WIN AGAIN
The Pee Wees played three other exhibition games during the week. On Wednesday, the 17th, they took on the Mississauga Jets and came out ahead by a 3-1 score.

It was a closely fought match as the opposition scored first. But John Lorito tied the game with the help of David Harris.

Alain Thibault got the second goal assisted by Jeff Brady to put us ahead. There was no further scoring until the last second of the match when Trevor Harkley put the puck in an empty net with Jeff Brady assisting.

On Tuesday, behind the splendid goaltending of Steve Eastwood and with some determined effort by the defence, the squad chalked up a well-earned victory against the Metro Black Hawks.

The team spotted the opposition two goals in the first period, but Davin Ciglen got things going with a "boomer" from the blue line that found the target in the second period.

Peter Atherly also set up a goal by Jeff Brady on a blue line drive to tie the game.
