

Atoms split games

The McNally Construction - Georgetown Firefighters Major Atoms split the first two games of the Tri County playoffs.

On Saturday at the Spring Valley Arena in Ancaster Georgetown blanked their hosts 8-0.

However, in Victoria Park Arena on Sunday they were edged 2-1 by the squad from Chinguacousy.

In Ancaster, Georgetown netted two in the first, two in the second, and four more in the third.

Two goal performances from Adam Bennett, Alan Giray, and Stuart Vogt and singles from Travis Gardiner and Kevin Roe accounted for all the scoring plays.

Earning two assists each were Doug Kent, Brent Presswood, John Brooker and Jeremy Felce.

Helping set up one marker each were Chris Stoddart, Doug McDermott, Travis Gardiner, Andrew Hoddinott and Stuart Vogt.

Against Ching on Sunday, Georgetown took the lead on an unassisted marker by Brent Presswood at 7:08 of the opening period.

Ching tied the game on a powerplay at 8:33 of the middle frame and netted the game winner less than a minute later.

Liftech score 10-2 win

Georgetown's momentum towards the playoffs continued on a winning note as they totally outplayed the opposition February 20th.

Stephen Lee opened the scoring one minute into the game. Assists went to Brian Leslie and Bill Tutt. Just nine seconds later John Wilson assisted by David Ingills added another major. Donnie Guest assisted by Steven Sutherland put the Atoms ahead by three.

Brampton countered with one before Georgetown opened the flood gates adding six unanswered goals in the second period.

Majors went to John Wilson unassisted and his second of the game. Mike Wilkins helped again by David Ingills added another, then Steven Sutherland assisted by Donnie Guest added one more and Cameron Herman added another assisted by Stephen Lee.

Cameron added another just sixteen seconds later this time helped by Bill Tutt. Bill Tutt then scored himself aided by Shane Reid and John Wilson. The latter four majors were tallied in the last two minutes of the middle frame.

Brampton scored in the third period however Georgetown potted the last goal with only 23 seconds remaining thanks to Brian Leslie. Final score Georgetown 10, Brampton 2.
