

Stewart-town cliff-hanger

A cliff-hanger of a game took place last week when two area Middle schools fought for the girls basketball league championship. Stewarttown girls defeated their Centennial Middle school opponents 41-40. The score exchanged hands many times before Stewarttown gained control of the game late in the third quarter, only to see Centennial come back and almost take the victory away from Stewarttown.

Leading her Centennial team was Chris Harris who found the range for 12 points while Dianne Kosziwka paced her team with nine points. Susanne Parker had seven points for her Centennial team.

Leading her Stewarttown team in the victory was Marlene Tilsira who collected 18 points. Janice Jickling, Lori Book and Amy Powers each collected six points while Sandra Heaton had five points.

The game leaves the Stewarttown girls in sole possession of first place with a 7-1 record. Centennial has a 6-2 record while third place W.I. Dick has a 3-5 record.

In the boys game, Stewarttown also defeated Centennial 43-30. For Centennial Jeff Shoultice had 12 points while teammate John Watts connected for four points.

Helping Stewarttown to victory were Anthony Larsen with 14 points, Alan Scott, a seventh grader, scored 12 points while Don Crowe had four points.

Stewarttown placed first as a result of the win with a 8-0 record. W.I. Dick finished with a 6-2 record while Centennial had a 3-5 record.

Optimist Minor Bantams are hot

By HAROLD GILMER Herald Special

Four exhibition games for the Optimist Minor Bantams have kept the team well-tuned for further playoff competition in Tri-County action. Against Erin last Feb. 15 the Georgetown Minor Bantams skated to a 3-2 defeat, but avenged the loss a week later in a 3-1 victory.

In the first game against Erin Georgetown outskated and outshot the Erin team but didn't hit them. The team could not capitalize on their chances.

Jon Hammer and Dean Irvine scored for Georgetown while Jon Hammer had one assist.

In the return match against Erin Feb. 28 Louis DePaoli, Jon Hammer and Dean Irvine scored for a 3-2 victory. Georgetown proved they could hit without taking cheap penalties and as a result, with good goaltending from John Janty and Steve Tucker the Minor Bantams won.

Against Brampton in an exhibition match Georgetown was paced by Louis DePaoli when he scored twice in a 2-2 tie. Both of DePaoli's goals were scored in the last three minutes of the game.

Georgetown didn't show the hustle or desire in this game. Mark Pries is expected back shortly from his appendix operation.

In Georgetown's 9-2 win over Kitchener (exhibition match) last Sunday the Optimist sponsored team skated well and made good on their passes. It was a good team effort.
