Fuel Substitute
Lignite pellets that resemble charcoal briquettes like those used in the home barbecue grill are being developed by mechanical engineers as a possible fuel substitute for manufacturers who normally use large amounts of natural gas or high-grade coal for their business. Untreated lignite, however, is brittle to the touch and a method must be found to keep the coal from crumbling.

MEMORIALS

HULME, Jennifer, Elizabeth — In loving memory of our beautiful baby daughter, who was taken from us so suddenly on March 4, 1981. Her tiny little body is in our thoughts daily. Our hearts still ache in pain. Two short months we had you. Suddenly never to see you again. All we have are precious memories. And many silent tears still flow. How much it meant to lose you, Jenny. No one will ever know. You made everyone feel so special. With your sweetness and your charm. If only we had another chance. To hold you in our arms. We'll love and miss you forever, sweetheart, all our love, Mommy, Daddy & Sister Natalie. Also dearly loved and sadly missed by Oma and Opa Link, Haiske and Roland.

CARPENTER, Edwin John — Passed away March 3, 1975. His smiling way and pleasant face. A pleasure to recall. He has a kindly word for each and died beloved by all. Someday we hope to meet him. Someday, we know not when. To clasp his hand in the better land. Never to part again. Sincerely missed and lovingly remembered by sons, daughters & grandchildren. 10749m

WRIGHT, Dorothy — In loving memory of my sister, Dorothy, who passed away March 3, 1978. They say memories are golden. Well maybe this is true. But I never wanted memories. I only wanted you. Sincerely missed by sister Florie. 10749m
