Father and son dinner success

By Mrs. JOHN BELLBODDY

Now we're into March, that wild and blustery month when winter gives us some last blasts of stormy weather before he disappears for this year. We'll hang on until the 21st gets here. Our Women's Institute members, their husbands and some friends immensely enjoyed the musical "Anything Goes" by Cole Porter Feb. 18 at the John Elliott Theatre. Everyone did their parts so well. They were all marvellous and the costumes, the dancers, the sailors and the orchestra were delightful.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, along with two other friends, have returned from a week in the Bahamas, where the temperature was in the 80s. A successful Father and Son banquet was held in Hillcrest Church Feb. 24 for the Scouts, Cubs, Venturers and Rovers and their dads under the capable planning and work of Marion McPhail and her willing workers.

Bruce Trail hike enjoyed for 'Out in Scouting' day

By JEAN LAYMAN
"Out in Scouting" was fun for Cubs and their Leaders Saturday when the third annual hike took place. Cubs from 1st Georgetown, 2nd Georgetown, 4th Georgetown, Glen Williams, Acton and Limehouse hiked from the Sile at Bruce Trail, just east of the Speyside store, to Limehouse.

During the hike, the boys saw a number of animal tracks including rabbit, weasel and coon tracks. Some boys saw a rabbit in the birch. Boys were reminded to protect the wildlife. Leave only thanks and take nothing but photographs. Carry out any litter and use stiles, rather than climb fences. Markers were put along the trail and many interesting "quirks of nature" and landmarks were there to observe. Checkpoints were patrolled and looked after by Sheila Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Mel McCallum. When the group finished the hike, hot chocolate and cookies were served under the leadership of Marsha Batchelor, Marg Tanis, Evelyn McCallum and Sheila Foster.

This hike was under the leadership of Elaine Hannah and Evelyn Owen. District Commissioner John Sharples was on hand at the start of the hike and gave his best wishes for a successful time. Boys were reminded of Resource Day to be held this Saturday, March 6 in the Ballinafad Community Hall.

Songsters at Acton banquet honor Lord Baden Powell

Second Trinity Acton Beavers, Cubs, Sea Scouts, Leaders, parents and guests attended their Annual Banquet last Wednesday night in the Knox Presbyterian Church Hall. Group Committee Chairman Rick Bailey welcomed everyone for the celebration banquet in observance of the Founder of Scouting - Lord Baden-Powell. Rev. Chuck Beaton gave the blessing. Following the sumptuous dinner, Mr. Bailey introduced guests, District Commissioner John Sharples, Jean Layman, and Gord Douglas - president of District Council.

Highlighting the evening was the entertainment by the three sections. The Beavers sang action songs, the Cubs led by Rosemary Kenny also sang. The Sea Scouts looked real sharp in their navy uniforms with white sailor hats and they sang "I see a bye".

Mr. Bailey thanked Leslie Kenny, Carolyn Gibson, Kim Heaps, Richard Telford, Glen Halkaa Beaver Leaders Rosemary Kenny, Bonnie Mitchell, Keith Black Cub Leaders and Steve Ormsby, Terry Bridge and Chuck Beaton, Sea Scout Leaders for the time and effort

put into their meetings to help make the boys become useful citizens. The hall was decorated with sailboats and the 75th Anniversary theme. Mr. Bailey thanked the ladies of the church for the delicious dinner and every one helping to make this event a success.

Scouts attend council session

A dozen or so Scouts turned up at Monday night's council meeting to learn about municipal decision making. Under the leadership of Scoutmaster Barry Gambles, the Second Georgetown scouts followed deliberations for most of council's 45-minute open meeting and then headed upstairs into a committee room at the town offices on Trafalgar Road to talk about their visit. Scouts, Guides, Brownies and Cubs have frequently attended council meetings as part of their programs.

Ballinafad 4-H girls complete breadmaking curriculum

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent
877-2000

The 4-H Home-making Club are well on the way to completing the course in Breadmaking. Last week each girl had a assignment to do at home and by all accounts there were some delicious-looking loaves on display.

Sunday was a beautiful day, lots of sunshine and blue skies prevailing, for the last of February. It is to be hoped that March comes in like a lamb and goes out like a lamb as well. Rev. Bandy is recovering from recent surgery and was assisted with the Church service by Mrs. Norman Sinclair, who is a member of the official board.

St. Andrew's Church in Georgetown are hosting the World Day of prayer March 5 at 2 p.m. The U.C.W. have arranged to have Rev. Lynne Bandy as the guest speaker. The young peoples group will be meeting at the Church March 7 at 7 p.m. The pancake supper Shrove Tuesday was well attended and quite successful.

The ladies have been turning out well to the quilting bees at Ilita Shortalls home. Another quilt has almost been completed.

Mann, who is the new pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, Cobourg.

Winifred Smith accompanied her daughter Mrs. Charles Burt to Cobourg last Tuesday where they attended the induction service of Rev. Ralph

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lewis and family had as their guests this past weekend her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wood from Hudson, Quebec.

Limehouse gets furnace

By Mrs. A.W. BENTON
