Stewarttown boys and Centennial girls take North Halton basketball honors

Centennial and Stewarttown Middle Schools proved last Thursday in Acton that our area schools have the best basketball teams in North Halton.

In finals the Centennial girls and the Stewarttown boys claimed their respective titles as best teams, competing against Sam Sherratt and W.I. Dick in the semi-finals.

The Stewarttown boys team won their North Halton pennant after defeating W.I. Dick 30-21. With one of their starting players missing, coach Greg Sora sent Jim Manning who according to the coach, played an excellent defensive game.

Pat Braund was the high scorer in the game and he set the tempo for Stewarttown to follow, Sora said. Pat Braund had 11 points while Anthony Larsen collected seven for Stewarttown. Mark Pries and Don Crowe each ended the game with six points.

In the boys semi-final Don Crowe was Stewarttown's high scorer as the team downed Sam Sherratt 22-13. In the other semi-final, W.I. Dick narrowly defeated Centennial 25-21. Shephard for Centennial was their leading scorer.

The Stewarttown boys have a season record of nine wins and no losses plus two tournaments won. Yesterday (Tuesday) Stewarttown boys played Burlington for the semi-finals for Halton.

GIRLS FINAL

In the girls final, Centennial defeated Stewarttown 32-28 in a very exciting game. Winning coach Alice Ogden said although her team were winning 23-9 at three-quarter time, in the fourth quarter Stewarttown outscored Centennial and had the eventual winners nervous.

"They came on strong and we had to put a stall on," Ogden said. She said Centennial has a good foul-shooting percentage which helped the team. They scored 11 points on foul shots.

"Suzanne Parker is not usually our top scorer, but she had a good game with 13 points." Chris Harriss had nine points for Centennial.

Stewarttown's high scorers were Lori Book with five points and Sandy Heaton with a remarkable 16 points.

In the girls semi-final Stewarttown beat Sam Sherratt 17-14 as Lori Book, Marlene Tilstra and Sandy Heaton each collected four baskets.

Centennial, meanwhile, in their semi-final against W.I. Dick defeated their opponents 39-27. Suzanne Parker had 13 points while Chris Harriss had 8 points.

The Centennial girls were playing Rolling Meadows for the Halton semi-finals Tuesday while Georgetown's Holy Cross represented the Halton Separate School girls also last night (Tuesday).

Holy Cross champions!

The Georgetown Holy Cross girls basketball team won their season after defeating St. Raphaels from Burlington 21-17.

Coach Marie Tobin said the team from Georgetown were able to dominate because of their sure defence.

The team has a 31 win, one loss record over the season to claim the Halton Separate School title.

The Holy Cross girls also won five tournaments they played in. Against Burlington the high scorer was Lil Krascie. Holy Cross were invited to the Halton Public Schools semi-final last Tuesday (yesterday) with results not known at press-time.

BEAT MARLIES
Exhibition play on Sunday, March 7th, saw the home town boys against the Toronto Marlies Triple A Team. This game was a preview for the competition the boys are expected to see in their Nova Scotia Tournament in mid April.

The coaches were very pleased with the boys play in this game. The goal-tending was shared by Chris (Chico)

Pearson and Joe Halson both coming up with a superb game.

It was end to end hockey and very entertaining for the many spectators who saw the game. The first period ended scoreless. The Marlies opened the scoring at the 13:12 mark of the second period. The home town came back at the 6:04 mark with a goal by Paul Smith assisted by Rory Kennedy and Mike Chiovitto.

It was all downhill from here as Georgetown never looked back as they found the mark three more times. Terry Dixon from Mark Moody and Bill Herman, Mike Chiovitto assisted by Rory Kennedy and Mark Dunning from Steven Fletcher and Bill Herman.

The Marlies were a big team and played quite a physical game. There were 11 penalties in total. Final score Georgetown 4 - Toronto Marlies 1.
