

How to beat the North Stars

 mastery of the faceoffs. With West winning many of the face-offs in a small rink, more goals could be scored from close range, Inglis said. Timmins have got 12 different players in their lineup, but the Raider coach says his team has a stronger defence and forwards plus two good goaltenders. With

Wayne Wood in goal directing the attack, Inglis feels confident he has a goaltender who "knows how it is to win." With better skaters than Timmins and a big rink at home, the difference should work to Georgetown's advantage, Inglis said. Four good lines and a club that has consistently scored well even in the third period should stand Georgetown in good stead for the series, he said. The following is the Timmins North Stars lineup for the series in Georgetown this weekend:

 1. Steve Kidd, 30. Bill Hughes, 2. Dan Gauthier, 3. Ted Zajac, 4. Jim Mair, 6. Don Hawks, 7. Blain Lamothe, 8. Mike Rainville,

9. Yvon Fournier, 10. Chip Mercer, 11. Darcy Quinn, 14. Gus Gauthier, 15. Ted Van, 16. Vern Plumber, 18. Roger Gagne, 19. Terry West, 20. John Muthorn, 21. Gerry Carriere, 27. Dan Hway, 23. Mike Panasse, 71. Guy Losier, Coach Don Labreche, Manager Bill Moffat, Trainer George Rodda, Roy Weir
