Spring break

Last week the ladies of North Halton hosted their annual Spring Break Bonspiel. This was a very popular event, with quite a number of teams on a waiting list, hoping to get in on the fun.

There were fourteen out of town teams and two home teams. The winner of the 9 a.m. draw was Muriel Danard from Brampton. Curling with her were Donna Wanless, Ann Jeffrey and Helen Leslie.

Runner up in the first draw Donna Stock from Burlington with Jean Cliffe, Anne Matheson and Edna Hackett.

The big winner of the day was Nancy King from Dundas Valley Country Club. The Gambro trophy was presented to the team by Mary Black.

Nancy and her rink of Marion Mouldon, Julia Doherty and Dorothy Baldstadt won first place in the 11 a.m. draw as well as the trophy.

Runners up in the second draw were Irene Wilson from Brampton and her rink of Janet Erwin, Pat Bunn and Marilyn Brown.

The success of the day was in large measure due to Greta Lamb and Donna Blight, with all the members of the committee. The dinner was excellent and all the ladies who helped during the day looked terrific in their western square dance outfits.

Many thanks to all the donors of door prizes. They helped to make the day a lot of fun.

Friday March 26 saw the end of the last draw in mixed curling. The winners of the first draw John and Mary Anne Marling with Mark de Hueck and Mary Kitey. Runners up were Ron and Cathy Perego with Jim and Dot Hicks.

The second draw was won by Warren and Marilyn Mickethwaite with Bob and Mary Wanda. Runners up were Frank Wilson with June Russell and Norm and Edith McPhail. Doreen Geofreda did a lot of sparing for June.

This coming weekend the mixed playdowns will be played.

Georgetown Atoms in Day of Champions

By JOHN FELCE
Herald Special

Over the past week the McNally Construction Georgetown Firefighters treated their fans to some very exciting hockey.

On March 22, they took on the Hamilton Huskies, in Hamilton, in an exhibition contest.

By the end of the second period, Georgetown trailed 3-0 but they battled back to a 4-4 tie. Adam Bennett netted three and Travis Gardiner one in this third period rally.

The locals defeated Okville 7-3 on March 23 to win the playoffs and now advance to the Day of Champions to be held April 4 in Orangeville.

Two goal efforts by Travis Gardiner and Andrew Hoddnott (who also had two assists) sparked the win. Other Atom sharpshooters were Adam Bennett, Doug Kent, and Jeremy Felce.

Alan Giray earned two assists. Brent Presswood, Doug McDermott, Chris Stoddart, Stuart Vogt, Kevin Roe, and Adam Bennett helped on one scoring play each.

Brampton Tournament The Atoms faced off against some excellent competition in the Brampton Tournament March 24-25 and earned a 1-1 record.

In game one, against South London, Georgetown had a 3-0 lead after six minutes of play on goals by Stuart Vogt, Andrew Hoddnott, and Brent Presswood. Assisting in this first period surge were Doug Kent (2), Adam Bennett, and Andrew Hoddnott.

By 8:15 of the second South London had tied the game. Fast action, sharp checking, good goaltending, and mis-ed chances were the story for both teams until Adam Bennett netted the game winner at 1:18.

In game two, Guelph sported a 4-0 lead before the Atoms got rolling and played some super catch up hockey.

Their powerplay was very effective as they connected on 3 of their 4 opportunities but could not beat the Guelph goalie on any of their other good chances. Andrew Hoddnott scored twice and Chris Stoddart once.

Powerplay assists went to Doug Kent (2) and Adam Bennett and Brent Presswood.

According to the tournament rules, Georgetown had to defeat a strong Newmarket squad, in game three, by at least two goals to advance to the semi-finals.

Chris Stoddart and Doug McDermott set up Travis Gardiner at :31 of the opening period but Newmarket roared back with three by 8:58 of the third.

As with their other games, the Atoms played with determination and spirit. They chipped away at Newmarket's lead until the contest was tied 3-3.

Each team pressed for the tie breaker but the scoring was over.

Industrial playoffs

De Boers Movers edge past Akers in semi-final series

De Boer's emerged the champions over Akers-Clark in their semi-final Industrial hockey series to advance to the finals against Norval's Hollywood Tavern.

In a hard-fought contest between the two teams, Doug Barnes sparked his De Boer's teammates with two goals in their 3-2 win over Akers.

In the first period Doug Thompson for Akers opened the game with a goal assisted by John Boyce at the 10:37 mark.

Then Doug Barnes retaliated for De Boer's on a goal assisted by Tony Giannini and Hon Osborne two minutes later.

In the second period Akers went ahead when Jim Blair found the mark for his team assisted by Thompson and Chris Milne. With three minutes left in the period, Doug Barnes again tied the game with his shot on net from Marty Weaven.

Terry Turner put the game away for De Boer's at the 16:48 mark in the third period on the only goal of the period assisted by Marty Weaven and Doug Barnes.

In the five games played, Akers-Clark actually outscored their opponents 23-19, but won two games and lost three.

Last Monday night (March 29) De Boer's Movers faced the Hollywood Tavern in the first game of the Industrial league final playoff round.

Novice Reps earn MVP's in Markham

The Georgetown North Halton Sports Camp Novice Reps competed at the Rotary Club of Markham's Annual tournament last Friday March 26.

In the first game Chinguacousy edged past the Sports Campers 4-3.

After two first period goals by Ching, Georgetown came back when Brian Brookers scored from Jason Smith and Sean Gulstini.

In the second period Ching went ahead 3-1 before Duane Lewis scored unassisted for Georgetown.

Ching scored again for a 4-2 tally, but then Trevor Ellnesky added one for Georgetown from Steve Brown and Adam Hills.

GAME TWO
In their game against Chatham, Georgetown outscored their opponents 2-1.

Georgetown opened up with two goals in the first period by Duane Lewis and Sean Gulstini assisted by Steve Brown, Jason Smith and Adam Hills.

After a scoreless second period Chatham potted one goal at the 3:46 mark of the third period.

GAME THREE
In the Saturday consolation final Markham edged past the Sports Camp Novices by a 2-1 margin. Adam Hills, Sean Gulstini and Brad Amato won the Most Valuable Player Awards.

Duane Lewis gave an outstanding offensive and defensive performance.

Next Saturday April 3 at 2 p.m. the North Halton Sports Camp Novices play in the consolation final at Gordon Alcott for the Day of Champions.

Disabled games

Applications for the 1982 Regional Games for the Physically Disabled can be obtained at the Town of Halton Hills Recreation Department by contacting Joy Gwilliam at 877-5185.

The South West and Central West Competition will be held in Brantford June 11-12.

The Regional Games for the Physically Disabled are held each year to promote the growth and development of sports for disabled people.

If you would like to participate in the upcoming competition, fill in a registration form and forward it to the Games Organizing Committee.

Any athlete regardless of age may compete in the regional and Ontario games, provided the athlete has met the necessary qualification standards.

To keep competition fair, athletes are classified by the extent of their disability. Rules are set down by the national sports governing bodies for the amputee, wheelchair and blind, and by the provincial body for the cerebral palsy athletes.
