

Hockey Heritage honors our local devotees

Jack Kluszniak

Roy Norton Sr.

Gerry Inglis

Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 1220

Bud James

The beginning of the Georgetown Hockey Heritage Award originated four years ago when the Georgetown Hockey Team came to play the Intermediate A Hockey...

In making the announcement of the award, Georgetown Hockey Heritage director Fred Moore said the theme of the award would be three-fold...

It will be the introduction of the award...

Bill Wisatneck, publisher of the Hallow Hills Herald, presented Harrison with a certificate of appreciation...

1978 Dinner

Nov. 20, 1978 was chosen as the 1978 winner of the Hockey Heritage award. It was the first year the Hockey Heritage award had public nominations...

In Georgetown Hockey clubs to 1945 in the city. In 1945, hockey was assisted in the early morning Saturday games and was active in Saturday Hockey for 17 years...

The diversity of the interest in participation in all levels of hockey in the community are particularly impressive. James was on the executive of Support Group Hockey for two years. During the early 60s he...

was manager of the Georgetown Hockey Club. He was also a member of the Ontario Hockey Federation...

The 1982 winner of the Hockey Heritage Award is Gerry Inglis, present coach of the...

Georgetown Hockey Heritage Award is presented to...

Both as a player and coach, Gerry has been a devoted devotee of hockey in Georgetown...

Gerry Inglis heritage recipient

Georgetown Chrysler Raider coach Gerry Inglis has been named the 1982 winner of Georgetown's prestigious Hockey Heritage award...

Inglis, a New York, but high profile local hockey personality, became the fifth annual recipient of the Heritage award which was presented to him Monday March 1st at a special banquet in his honor...

One of the stated purposes of the Heritage award is to recognize a significant contribution to the Georgetown hockey community...

Gerry Inglis, a 50 year old resident of Georgetown, was active as a player for twenty years in which time he played on four Georgetown OHA championship teams...

A coach in house league and rep hockey, Inglis was successful in coaching an Ontario Major championship team in OHA Junior A championship (1977-78) and four OHA Intermediate A championships...

Inglis built the OHA record for the most consecutive winners in Intermediate A competition (three). He might well be considered the most successful coach in Hallow Hills hockey history...

When talking about why Inglis was chosen, many of the reasons are repeated by different people. Raider president Bud Kramer is pleased with the choice of Inglis because he says you could never begin to comprehend the number of...

hours Gerry Inglis has spent in amateur hockey. "Gerry taught a lot of people how to play," Kramer says...

It is noted the winning attitude of Inglis that has impressed many people in Georgetown about his capabilities as a player and coach...

"You'd never think of Gerry after a game if he lost," former Raider manager Bud James says. "Bud's really a good mouth person who'll help you with anything if he can. He's liked for his coach and James says...

For James, who was last year's Heritage winner, Gerry Inglis has a good knowledge of the game and...

all his teams are disciplined. "I liked the way he handled the players, how he disciplined them and how he inspired them," James says...

When contacted about the award selection, Inglis admitted surprise. According to his wife, Elaine, Gerry asked her if she should sign down the award. "He doesn't like to be in the limelight in that respect," she said. "Gerry would rather win a game than be individually recognized," his wife says...

Inglis is described by Elaine as a very quiet man who is also a very good father. "He's raised up the hockey game and he doesn't like to talk hockey," she says...

ion of the Raider Supportive game to be played the next night. We will also pay tribute to local people who have devoted much of their time to hockey and we also want to play up Georgetown's great hockey tradition," he said...

Canadian Tire and S.B. McLaughlin Associates co-sponsored the Hockey Heritage Banquet which allowed for the ticket prices to be held at $7 for adults and $5 for children...

First Dinner

Four hundred people gathered for the Georgetown Raiders Hockey Heritage Dinner at Holy Cross Auditorium Feb. 14 to among other things pay homage to Jack Harrison...

Harrison, the club's manager, spent the last half century or so devoting part of his life to hockey...

Telegrams were received from Harold Ballard, president of Maple Leaf Gardens and Ledy Field, curator of the Hockey Hall of Fame. Ballard also sent along a hockey stick autographed by all the members of the Maple Leaf team...

In the years with hockey, Norton was president and treasurer of the Support Group, treasurer of the International Amateur tournament and he served in various capacities in the house leagues. He was never a coach or manager of a team...

"The one thing about being involved with hockey is that the boys kept me feeling young," Norton said...

1982 Dinner

For their many years of devoted service and involvement in minor hockey in Georgetown, the local Branch 120 of the Royal Canadian Legion was chosen 1982 winner of the Hockey Heritage award...

Their association with minor hockey dates back to 1936 and the Little NHL. Although they are not actively involved in hockey this year, the Legion has over the years been instrumental in the involvement of young hockey players in the community...

1981 Dinner

Mr. L.G. Bud James was last year's recipient of the Hockey Heritage award. The involvement of James...

League All-Stars announced

The Georgetown Chrysler Raiders dominated the Intermediate A Southern division All-Star honoring for the 1981-82 regular season by placing five members of the club on the top 10 positions...

Nominated to first line as centre was Gary Ford, who tied with Dean Neuman of Port Elgin. Left wing Peter Sturgeon and Bill Hamilton were also selected to the first...

all-star lineup. On defence, Raider captain Steve Lyon was selected along with Owen Sound's Rick Green...

The top goaltender was Craig Watson from Midland. Coach on the first team was Collingwood's Darryl St. while Raider mentor Gerry Inglis took the second team selection as coach. Dave Kretner captured the...

first star position as Manager of the Raiders while Owen Sound's Bud Green was selected as trustee...

The second team all-star consisted of Tim and Tom Oakes as centre (and), Greg Scharf, Collingwood, left wing, Dave Payne, Collingwood, right wing, Bob Watson, Collingwood, defence...

Wesley King, Midland, defence, Steve Kramer, Port Elgin, goal, Gerry Inglis, Georgetown coach...

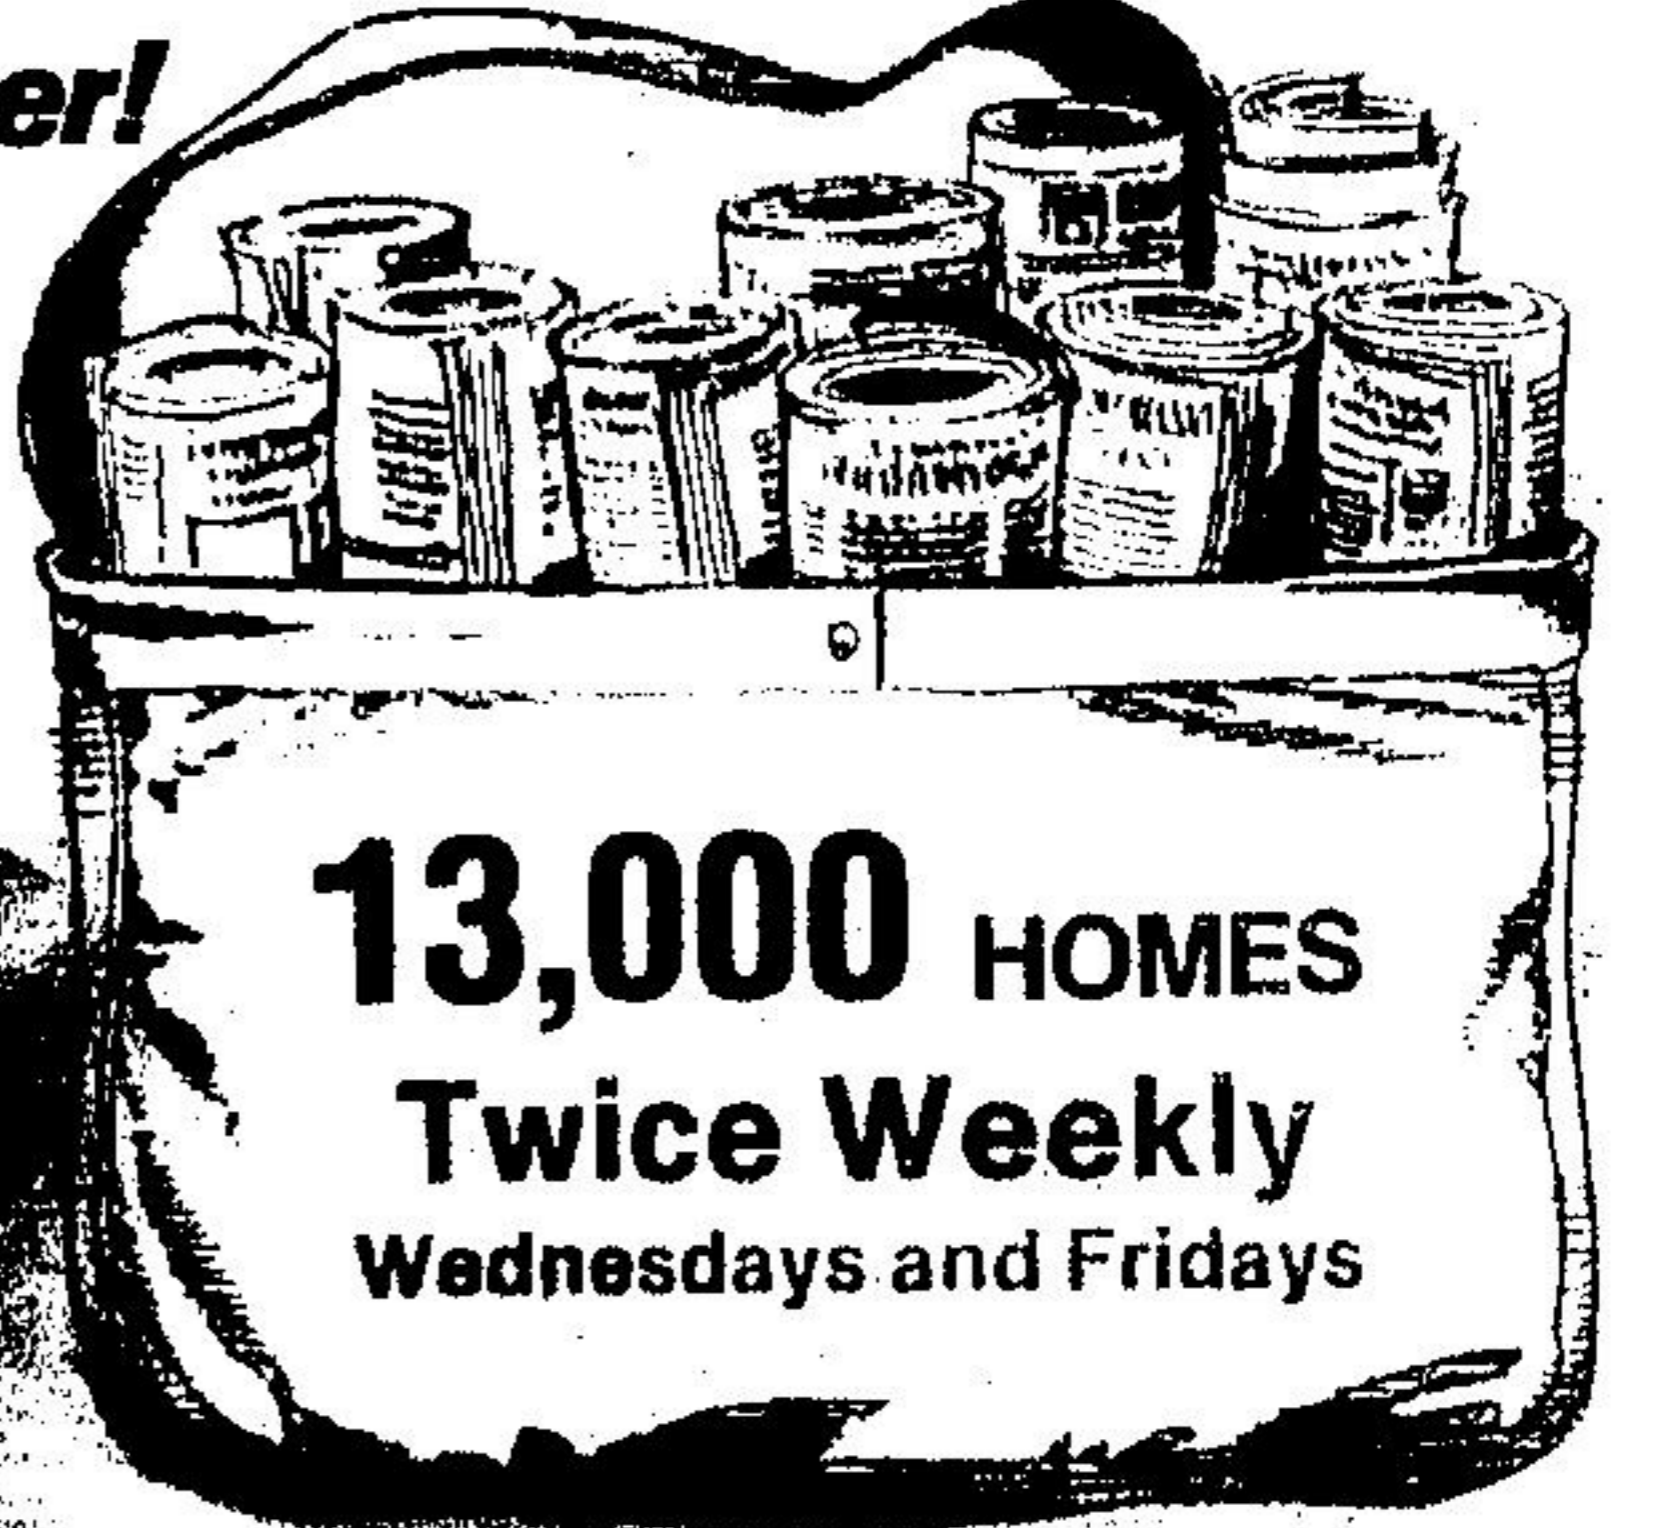

Selected as the Most Valuable Player for the Intermediate A league was Georgetown's top goal scorer, Bill Hamilton while the Most Valuable Defenceman award went to Rick Green of Owen Sound...

From One Winner To Another!

the HERALD

Home Edition

45¢

13,000 HOMES Twice Weekly Wednesdays and Fridays