In game five of six games in the Tri-County playoff round robin, the Georgetown Optimist Minor Bantams tied Streetsville 5-5 last Sunday. Georgetown scored the first two goals by Jon Hammer but Streetsville scored the next five. Georgetown suffered too many penalties in the second period with Streetsville taking advantage as they scored three unanswered goals. Chris Hodgins from David Bertrand and Lance Reid started Georgetown off in the third period. Mike Teetzal scored from Pat Braund and Lance Reid to come within one goal of Streetsville. Louis De Paoli scored the tie goal assisted by Mike Teetzal. Steve Tucker played in net and came up with some good saves. Mike Teetzal had one goal and two assists. Jon Hammer, two goals Pat Braund, two assists, Lance Reid, two assists, Chris Hodgins and Louis De Paoli, one goal each while David Bertrand had one assist.

MARCH 29 — Georgetown defeated Streetsville 6-1 the next night in Streetsville. Georgetown Minor Bantams came out on top of their round robin with five wins and one tie to qualify for the Day of Champions April 3 at Alcott Arena.

A good team effort by the Optimist Minor Bantams, especially with their checking and good heads up pass-
