Skating club presentations

The Georgetown Figure Skating Club held their annual year-end seasonal performance trophy presentations last Wednesday, March 31.

Taking home the hardware for the Most Improved Skater at the Pre-School level was Danielle Dembie, while Allison Vardy was second and Kelly Sullivan was third.

The Most Improved Junior Male award, called the Gil Rushton Memorial was won by Phillip Miller. Oslan Morgan was second and Stephen Scarlett finished third in the voting.

The Executive trophy for the Most Improved Junior Female went to Jennifer Ruff while Debbie Taylor came in second. Tracy Veltman was third in the voting.

The Gale Verhegan trophy was collected by Karen Sowery while Susan Gray was second. Tying for third spot were Melanie Piers and Jennifer Wands.

The President's Cup was won by Dayna Cammack while coming in second was Kelly Cotton followed by third place Nancy Cocks.

The Bill Smeaton Memorial was attained by Jennifer Hoddinott while Tammy

North Halton curling
By PAT McLEOD
Herald Special

Polish the boots

North Halton's curling season is rapidly drawing to a close.

The Friday night mixed curling playdowns were held on Friday and Saturday April 2 and 3. First place was won by Jim Wilson with Doreen Geofreda and Norm and Edith McPhail. Second place was taken by Mike Geofreda with Norma Wilson and Bob and Theresa Smith.

Peg Darmody and her Business Girl rink of Sharon Wood, Joan Trimble and Patti MacLaren were among the prize winners at a Bonspiel in Barrie on March 28.

This coming weekend starts off the grand finale of the curling season. The Cornwall mixed bonspiel starts on Sunday and continues every night till Saturday, finishing off with a dinner and dance. The theme this year is western.

So get out your cowboyhats, polish up your boots and buckles.

Good curling and see you on the ice.

Y aquatic awards

With its Totals swimming classes ready to begin next week for the spring session, the Georgetown and District YM-YWCA has announced the names of those who completed its winter program.

The following swimmers are a "hearty breed", according to Y aquatics supervisor Cheryl Lightowler. "They braved more than the national average of Sunday night snowstorms to attend lessons at the Georgetown Indoor Pool."

Enjoying the Totals class were: Aimee Hamilton, Siawn Robinson, Jayna and Jason Foley, Karen Walker, Kenny Armstrong and Krystin McBride.

Cheryl McCreavy earned her Otter badge while John Waller and Emily Ranson became Seals. Dolphin badges were earned by Sandy Ball, Emily Hamilton, Bruce Davison, Donald Waller and Brendan Miller.

Participation balloons were given to Tamara Yury, Susan Kathwaroon, Ally Pearson, Michael Miller and Michael Cairns. Swimmer badges were earned by Corin Raymond, Amy Cooper, Martin Davison and Robert Weston.

Participation diplomas were given to Lisa and Eric Bradbury, Robert Walker, Mike Mavromatis, Perri Kudryk, Krissa Liotopoulos, Andy Deruchie, Jason Walker and Stephanie Pearson.

Congratulations to Star 1 swimmers John Jury, Karl Kahandahyanage, Scott Hamilton and Matt Deruchie. Adults receiving Star 2 badges were Claudette Smith, Mary Bond and Bob Kilby.

Earning badges for 1,000-metre continuous swims were Cheryl and Scott Lightowers, Melanie Jenkins, Stephen Delroy and Kim Pema.

The spring session of lessons from Parent and Tot to Terrified Adult runs Sundays through June 20 from 6 to 8:30 p.m.
