The Eagles are now outdoors

The Georgetown Eagles Junior baseball club are out of the nest and testing their wings at once per week practices this month.

The newly formed 21 year and under rep team has been loosening up their muscles in gym workouts for the past four weeks and last weekend they were outdoors every day of a four-day break from school.

Pitching seems to be a strong area of the team with a number of boys showing potential on the team, coach Kevin Burke said.

Two Brampton pitchers, Mike Coltrill and Chris Fabbri have caught the coaches' eye, and could add strength in homebrew stand-out Andrew Braun. The coach has four competent young men on the mound, but he's looking for a fifth pitcher.

About 16 players have been out at the gym workouts with the first open practice beginning this Saturday at the Fairgrounds diamond at 1 p.m.

The coach can sign 22 players, but he says he's ready to sign 12 of his ball-players now. The team is looking forward to a 30 game schedule with at least one double-header and one tournament.

The Eagles play their home games Sunday afternoon at the Georgetown Fairgrounds and will play their first game May 16 against Niagara Falls. Their second game of the season is against Mississauga on May 23.

The local green and white are looking forward to the season with enthusiasm. As infielder Gerry Milne says, there is a lot of team spirit and enthusiasm thus far on the club.

The Eagles team is the culmination of a three-year effort by coach Kevin Burke to enter his Midget-age house league players in a more competitive league.

With the help of the sponsorship and time of manager Finn Poustrup and the enterprising efforts of Kevin Burke's own players from last year, the team was finally able to enter a team after receiving sanctioning by the Georgetown Baseball Association.

Members of last year's house league all-stars back with the team are Mike Friskney, Andrew Braun, Paul Gustafson, Kevin Hughes, Mario Galvao, Gerry Milne, Pete Remblish, Craig Budweiser, Warren Crawford and Paul Blackmore.
