Eleanor McLean was the hostess for the April meeting of the W.I. As April is the month for the annual meeting members arrived around noon. The long table in the dining area of the kitchen was set for 12.

W.I. Grace was sung, then all sat down to a potluck dinner. There was a large variety of hot dishes and an ample supply of salads, pickles, relishes and rolls. When all had done justice to the food for the first course, Ada Kirkwood and Betty Koperdraad brought in a delicious dessert which they had prepared.

It was now time for the Table was then cleared, and dishes washed. The business session then took place around the table.

Marg Jamieson, took the president's chair, as the president was not able to be there. She first called on Lille Given who opened with a humorous reading on grandmothers.

After the customary opening, secretary called the roll which was answered by each paying their membership dues, and telling which month they would prefer to be hostess for a meeting. The minutes from the March meeting were read and the financial statement given. The business was dealt with and the correspondence read.

annual reports. Ada Kirkwood, secretary-treasurer was first called on. She gave a detailed report of projects that were undertaken by the branch for the past year. She reported all had been successful, and as a result when each had been tallied up it amounted to a fair profit to carry on with the activities for the 1982-83 year.

The public relation officer's report showed just what the W.I. had accomplished since the last report. Among the activities which the branch did for the community was a visit to the local lodge for senior citizens. They provided cookies and entertainment for a couple of hours.

Help was given to promote the Canada Day celebrations in the village. The sick and shutins were given a gift at Christmas, also cards were sent out to the sick and to those who had lost loved ones in the community.

The 4H home-making clubs have been continuously supported by the W.I. with two of the present members being leaders, instructing the group of girls.

Last thing, but not least, every Spring Ballinafad branch, along with two other neighboring W.I. branches entertain the residents of Halton Manor with lunch and program.

Other conveners, each in turn, gave splendid reports. The nominating committee reported on the slate of officers for this year. Grace McEnery was present to conduct the installation of officers. Following are the officers for 1982-83: past president - Reggie Slessoraitis; president - Marg Jamieson, 1st vice - Eleanor McLean, sec-treasurer - Ada Kirkwood, district director - Reggie Slessoraitis, asst. district director - Grace McEnery, public relations officer - Winnie Smith, branch directors - Lola Marshall and Frances Buckrell. Conveners: agriculture and Canadian industry - Alma Sinclair, citizenship and world affairs - Frances Buckrell, family and consumer affairs - Eileen Burt, education and cultural affairs - Grace McEnery, resolutions - Lille Given, curator - Eleanor McLean, sick and shuttin - Eileen Burt, pianist - Eileen McEnery, auditors - Eveline Snow and Ida Smith.

District Director who recently attended Halton County District meeting gave a report and informed members about all details of the District Annual coming up in May. Meeting closed with the singing of O Canada.

Ballinafad Church was beautifully decorated with plants and Easter lilies for the special service Sunday. Nancy Shortill assisted at the piano and

Game farm's lost elk shows up locally

By KAY WILSON
Herald Correspondent

Bruce and Vera Thatcher and son Edgar of R.R.1, Norval thought they were dreaming Saturday morning when they looked out their kitchen farm window. A big elk was standing alone, long enough for them to get their camera and take some snaps.

The elk was subsequently spotted again on the Fifth Line between Sideroads 10 and 15. Authorities were summoned and used a tranquilizer gun to subdue the animal for transport back to the Brampton game farm.

Three injured

Three Brampton residents were treated and released for minor injuries from Georgetown Memorial Hospital Sunday morning following a car collision at Guelph and Mary Streets in Norval. Driver Anthony Stodon was attempting a turn along a sharp bend in the road when he lost control of his vehicle, left the roadway and hit a tree in the garden of a Norval resident. There was $3,000 damage and Mr. Stodon was charged with careless driving.

Strikes stopped car

James Dye of Cambridge had minor injuries when a car drove up from behind and struck his vehicle Thursday afternoon while he was stopped for a red light at Georgetown's Maple Avenue and Guelph Street intersection. There was $3,400 damage to the cars.

It is believed to be one of the elk that escaped from the game farm on Highway 10 south of Brampton. A number of these animals were being kept in quarantine before being shipped to New Zealand. However, some pranksters opened the doors, and quite a few are still running at large. R.R.3, Georgetown, entertained Easter Sunday, in honor of the brother Bill Crawford and his fiancée Dianne Cunningham who are to be married May 22. Around 50 Laidlaw cousins attended.

Pinegrove Euchre had five tables April 5. Winners were: Jean Brander, Marie Murray, Harold Reed, Keith Webb, Lucky Draw - Flossie Reed, Lunch Com. - Jean Brander and Chester Early.

Norval Euchre had eight tables Thursday. Winners were: Floss Tracy, Mae Tost,
