

FIRST-TIME WINNER

A first-time winner, Chris Thompson, 9, was beaming Thursday when presented with a watch by Haritza Champ, hostess at the Georgetown McDonald's Restaurant. The George Kennedy School student won the McDonald's coloring contest on his first try. His mother said he had never taken part in the contest before because he doubted he could win. Can't win unless you try, eh, Chris?

Ballinafad news

Eileen McEnery played the organ for the beautiful anthem which the ladies' and men's choirs combined sang. Joyful hymns were sung and the inspiring sermon given by Rev. Bandy proved to be a lovely Easter Sunday service. One announcement to keep in mind is the rummage and bake sale this coming April 27, at the church from 10 a.m. to noon.

Clean clothing and other articles can be brought to the church Thursday and Friday evenings from 7 to 9. Baked goods at 9 a.m. Saturday morning.

It was also announced that the Ballinafad anniversary coming up May 2 will be a special event for the church, usual time 11:45 a.m.

Sorry that two of our residents are in the Georgetown Hospital. Ursula Eckert and Rita Shortill. Glad to report that both are improving.

Sympathy is extended to Grenfell Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wright and family in the loss of a mother and grandmother.

Ballinafad report on soccer. A few places are still available for local girls and boys in minor squirts (7 yrs. of age this year) team, also in mosquito boys, 11-12, and pee wee girls, 13 this year. In all there will be five teams playing in Ballinafad colours this season.

A two team expansion over the last two years. Coaches and managers already available, which shows the growth of interest in soccer in the village. Team lists will be available shortly so that, weather permitting, players can begin pre-season practices.

We welcome the new residents on the eighth line corner, Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald who are residing on the former Kanusek property.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and family spent Easter with friends in Ottawa.

Jobless Ontario attacked

By JULIAN REED, M.P.P.
Halton-Burlington UNEMPLOYMENT AND THE ECONOMY

In an emergency debate, both Opposition Parties strongly criticized Ontario's economic performance and job-creation record, stating that the province's unemployment is so severe that it should be treated as an emergency similar to a natural disaster.

Liberal Leader David Peterson has urged the Treasurer to bring down a provincial budget immediately, but the Treasurer has indicated that he's hoping that the federal government will replace its controversial budget before he has to introduce his own.

Peterson has called for immediate short and long term programs to bring relief to the province, particularly to those suffering most from high interest rates, such as farmers and businessmen.

PETERSON THRONE SPEECH RESPONSE

In his formal response to the Throne Speech, David Peterson stated some of the realities of March, 1982. "In the 1980s, Ontario ranked first among the provinces in almost every indicator of economic performance. Today, in most of those indicators we are last. The Ontario Economic Council predicts that if present trends continue, we will lose 44,000 permanent manufacturing jobs by 1990. According to the Canadian Federation of Independent Business, 80,000 small businesses in this province are at risk today. The Minister of Agriculture and Food estimates that there are about 6,500 farmers in serious financial difficulty. There are up to 10,000 families in danger of losing their homes, with their mortgage renewals in the 18 per cent range. There are 373,000 people unemployed in this province — 45,000 more than this time a year ago. 21,543 Ontario workers were permanently or indefinitely laid off in just the last three weeks. Some 68,000 citizens of Ontario migrated out of this province in the last two years."
