9 teams for our industrial fastball

The Georgetown Industrial Fastball league is all set to start their season which begins Monday May 3 when C and S Plumbing challenge Varian for the first win of the season.

In total, nine teams have signed up for the men's fastball league which entertains fans each Monday, Wednesday nights plus the occasional Sunday. Last year six teams played in the fastball league.

Team names and sponsors are as follows: C and S Plumbing, Varian, Akers-Clark, Merchants, Armstrong Collision, Hollywood Tavern, Peel Steel, M and M Pro Sports and "Gary Robinson".

Playoffs for the league begin Aug. 23. For a schedule of 1982, check our Friday edition.

Pool clinic coming

The Halton Hills Recreation and Parks Department will be holding workshops for people who own backyard pools. They will be held in Georgetown on April 28 and 29 and in Acton on May 5 and 6.

Such topics as opening and closing the pool, efficient filtration, chemical treatment, electrical safety, legal responsibilities, and water safety will be discussed. The clinics are free but participants are asked to please register by phoning the Recreation Department at 877-5185 ext. 60 or 853-1540.
