

DANCING FOR YOU

Jazz, tap, ballet, it'll all be on the John Elliott Theatre stage May 16 at 7 p.m. as girls in the Alda Heniss school of classical ballet show off their stuff. Along with the nine Georgetown girls who take dance lessons offered for the first year in town, will be more advanced dancers 15 to 20 years old from the Brampton studio. Carolyn Dabners (second from left in top picture) and (centre right) Tanya Abuhar, two Georgetown girls, will be performing with the group. Tickets are $3 and are available at the door one hour before the show or can be purchased from the box office May 14 from 6 to 8 p.m. (Photos by Alda Heniss)

The guest speaker at the meeting was Connie Bielby, an area resident who spoke on French immersion.

Reggie Slesoraitis, the immediate past president was honored when she was presented with the past president's badge.

The president, Marg Jamieson also had another pleasant duty to perform when she presented two 4-H Homemaking girls, Brenda and Cindy Leander, who had been successful in completing 12 clubs. They each received a tray from W.I.

To end the program, a plant sale was held, the proceeds going into the welfare fund. The meeting adjourned and a social time was enjoyed.

Mrs. Frank Smith was a delegate from the Ballinafad W.I. and attended the 35th officers' conference of the F.W.I.O. at the University of Waterloo for three days last week. There were 500 women present from all over Ontario.

The U.C.W. again presented "Helen Hills Fashions" at the community centre last week. The hall was beautifully decorated in pastel colors. The models were 12 local ladies who acted like real professionals. Door prizes added to the excitement of the evening. The committee of Helen Brown, Eileen Brown, Viola Shortill and Edna Shortill are to be congratulated, as well as many others. It was a very successful fashion show. The rummage sale at the church Sat. was also successful.

ful. Thanks to the many who donated articles.

It was a beautiful Sunday for Mother's day. Family service at the church brought many out. The junior choir sang a beautiful anthem. Flowers in the church were placed there by the Kerr family in memory of Mrs. Kerr's father, who recently passed away after a long illness. We extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Kerr and family in their loss.

Mrs. Paul Eckert was presented with a gift at the bowling banquet held in Georgetown last week. The gift was for the most improved player. "Congratulations, Ursula."

Recent visitors in the community were Alaster Thomson from Dundee, Scotland staying with the Jamiesons. Mr. and Mrs. Rogan Grey, from London, England are visiting at the Smith farm and will see other places of interest during their month's stay in Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Griffith Jones are also visiting at the Smith home. They are from Sudbury.

'Bubbles in the Stew' delights WI audience

By MRS. A.W. BENTON
Herald Correspondent

Mrs. A.J. Benton, second vice-president of Limehouse Women's Institute presided for the May meeting in the Hall Thursday evening.

The Ode and Collect were used in opening. Roll call was answered by each lady telling of one highlight of our W.I. which she remembers.

Delegates were named for the District Annual to be held at Hillcrest Church May 28.

Insurance on our W.I. property was increased and renewed. Plans were discussed regarding the observance of July and conveners were appointed. Euchres will be resumed in October.

Program convenor for the meeting, Mrs. Frank Brown chaired the latter part of the meeting. Mrs. A.J. Benton read Mrs. Brown's motto "Beautiful and pleasant things never die, their roots endure forever. Mrs. A.W. Benton entitled her topic, "Bubbles in the Stew", which was a resume of activities in our Limehouse W.I. since its organization May 17, 1921. She ended with the hope that our Women's Institute would continue making "Bubbles in the Stew" for another sixty years or more.

The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer and the W.I. grace. Mrs. Devereaux served a nice lunch and Mrs. Hannah extended courtesies.

Horticultural scientists are developing a fertilizer that, when sprayed on leaves, will increase the yields of food-producing plants. Using a process called food absorption, Dr. Benton Storey says plants should be capable of producing many times more than they now produce.
