Junior girls baseball begins

In the pitching department there is Donna Sedore who played Midget ball for the Georgetown Prep Singers for the past three years. Sedore, a native of Georgetown, will be complemented on the mound by Joanne Auger from Milton. As a first year Midget-age player, Auger is good for her age and she pitched juvenile last year, said James.

Justice Simmons from Lowville pitched for Milton last year and the coaches are looking for good things from her this season.

Cindy Halonen is the other pitcher the team is looking at seriously to handle duties on the mound. Halonen is a Georgetown native and sister to former Royallette second baseman Becky.

The junior girls team are courting Becky in hopes that she will decide to join the club. She is now training with the Chinguacousy team. Pitcher Michello Miehlm is also practicing with Chinguacousy and the junior club would like to recruit her services as well.

TEAM LEADER
Coach James is expecting Claire McDowell from Erin to be the junior club's team leader. She was a Royallette last year and plays second base.

This season would be her final year in junior ball. Most of the players on the team are from Georgetown with the exception of the pitchers and McDowell.

The junior girls team in Milton folded which allowed Georgetown the chance to recruit from that area.

The team is gunning for a playoff spot this season which means placing at least eighth in a nine team league. Other teams in the Southern Ontario Ladies' Softball League are: Erindale, Port Credit, Oakville Intermediates, Oakville Juniors, Hamilton Intermediates, Mount Hamilton Juniors, St. Catharines and Port Colborne.

The uniforms of the Georgetown team will be blue, white and red with blue predominating, similar to the Montreal Expos away jerseys.

Fish Nest
The female stickleback, a fish about three inches long, lays eggs in an underwater nest built by her mate.
