Powderpuff contests see Skylarks sail to win

By SUSAN WILLIAMS
Herald Special

Last week's games in the Ladies Powderpuff league were filled with good baseball playing, with fun and with many laughs.

It is obvious that the coaches and their teams are working hard together and putting their best effort into positioning and playing strategies.

I feel that all coaches deserve a special mention and are to be commended on their devotion of time and effort in working with the girls.

SUPERB SKYLARKS

Monday night, Skylarks were in fine form scoring 39 runs to defeat the Navy Blue team 39-8.

The whole team was amazing. Standouts were Cathy Kline, Sheila Andrew, and Mary Lynn Hiller for their defensive play and for attributing to their team's score.

Candy Moran in centre field, short stop Pat Mashinter and Ebba Krafcek in right field played consistently and contributed to Navy Blue's effort.

Scoring five runs in the fourth inning helped the Beige team to hang on to their lead to win 12-9 over the Black team in a close well played game.

Jo Anne Cole's excellent fielding play put a stop to many Black hits.

Leanne Mackie playing in centre field and at short stop gave fine defensive support and scored three runs to keep the Black team in the game. Other star mentions go to Ann Korzack and Joy Gwilliam for their strong playing.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The Burgundy team is establishing a high scoring reputation and proving that they're a team that will be hard to defeat.

They were victorious over the Red team 21-8. Each Burgundy team member gave their best effort in achieving their win.

Third base player Jeannie Brooks played her position well and brought in three runs for her team. Additional fine play came from Mary Jones, and Kara Mackie.

Despite the score, the Red team demonstrated that they are a determined and hard working team. Fine play for the Red team came from Marie Simonyi and Wendy Farrow.

High scoring was prevalent in the Green-Royal Blue game. The Green team came out on top with 31 runs to the Royal Blue's 19. There was a lot of good hitting and exciting plays throughout the game.

Donna Terry and Pat Akers created excitement with their home run hits and were all around good players.

No to be outdone, Royal Blue players Betty Simonyi and Debbie Jones also hit home runs and were the team's stars.
