

Abitibi holds down first

By BARB CASE
Herald Special
Wrapping up the second week of play, Abitibi Price holds down first place solo, while the Ballinacree Blue Jays, Huttonville Hawks, Laings Hustlers and Indusmin Expos battle it out in a four way tie for second, leaving Petrohul Oilers out in left field holding down the third place spot.

Sunday's starting game was an eye opener for the Indusmin Expos when they came up against the Petrohul Oilers' pitching and super defensive plays.

The Oilers also made a new record when they held their errors down to three. This win was a real high for them as it was their first of the season and against the Expos. With Dave Piehl on the mound, Kenny Thomson at short and Bob Tinsley at third base the rest of the game was left to the batters - and bat they did.

Dave Murchison of the Expos was the first to score, on a sacrifice bunt by Dave Williamson in the second inning. Then it was the Oilers turn at bat - bottom of second - and they had a field day getting six runs before retiring their side leaving the bases loaded. Bob Haslam, Dave Piehl, Tony Case, Don Belford, Dave Wallock and Bob Tinsley crossed the plate.

The Oilers got one more run in the bottom of the fourth to give them seven runs. The Expos tried for a come back in the sixth inning getting four runs, but the Oilers held their ground. Final score Oilers 7 - Expos 5.

although leading 1-0 against a gale force wind and rain in the first half. They could not take advantage of the elements in the second and allowed Sting to sting them 3 times.

Nevertheless the lads still boast a winning record to date, a pleasant change for Toronto based pro teams.

Which brings me finally to this week. This evening at 6:45 the major atoms host Milton in league play at Cedarvale. Brackens host Falcon reserves with perhaps a change of venue from Moore park to Cedarvale as Meteors are without opposition at league level.

The Mariners are away to SW Milton and Varian away to Acton Villa. Next Monday the Falcon first are at home to Slovenia at 8:45 preceded by the junior reps hosting Orangeville.

This Friday is the Youth Dance at Holy Cross Auditorium. Tickets are $10 per person and may be had from Jean Belshaw (877-5897), Julia Manning (877-8874), Julie Wilde (877-2554), Pat Johnson (877-1259), and Bryan Turner (877-6421)
