Jon wins 750 final

Broomhead's 500 and Cornwell's lightweight are written off. Broomhead arranges to borrow a ride for Monday. Cornwell calls up the reserve forces and borrows a ride on the Len Shepley Suzuki.

A new brake bracket for the Harley has to be fabricated, new exhaust pipes fitted and other sundry damages repaired. Sobering's lightweight needs a new piston - a used one in better shape than his own is "borrowed" from Georgetown moto-crosser Val Kerr.

But then more disaster strikes - the head on the water cooled Yamaha is found to be cracked. The only fix possible is epoxy and prayer - liberal applications of both.

Slow pitch need fans!

By BILL LANE
Herald Special

The Halton Hills Slow Pitch League will hold its charitable tournament on June 26-27.

The charity designated for this year's tournament will be for the mentally handicapped.

The league plans a 50-50 draw with all profits going to the mentally handicapped organization of Halton Hills.

Each team will play at least three games, with the final game to start hopefully at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, June 27.

The rain dates for the tournament will be July 10-11.

There will also be a spectator collection done throughout the games. The league hopes to see a lot of fans out to see the games and bring a few friends with them; let's show our mentally handicapped friends that we have people who care and love them in Halton Hills.

Martians 1
Blue Bandits 1

Carol Ferguson for the Blue Bandits scored first, but persistent effort paid off and Karen Fear tied up the game for the Martians. Marianne Longo sparked the Martians to a sustained attack in the second half with help from Nancy Walraven and Karen Fear. Good defensive action by Aileen Dobbie, Jana Digenova, and Melanie Remes kept the Martians from scoring although they had many chances.

Hornets 2
Cougars 2

The Hornets showed their power throughout the game and deserved their 6-2 victory with goals by Sheri Cave, Michelle Smith, Debbie Mitchell, Sheila Braam, Sonja Wasserman and Leanne Ingalls. Lara Blair, Jennifer Chandler and Mylene Benito helped in the attack. For the Cougars, Cindy Brennan and Nicole Remedios scored, supported by Tiffany Bomball, Laurie Doyle and Cathy Paul.
