

Six weeks holiday for employees

For 27 years of service, non-union secretarial employees, business managers and other non-teaching employees of the Halton board of education can claim six weeks holiday.

Those with less than 12 months service with the board are entitled to one day a month to a maximum of ten days for vacation. The two weeks holiday entitlement continues until an employee has worked four years with the board. Then, three weeks holiday are granted.

Ten years of service gives employees four weeks holidays and 19 years with the board, five weeks.

The board approved these vacation entitlements effective July 1 at their Thursday night meeting.

WE DO IT!

The staff of The Herald extends sincere sympathy to the family of Al Currie of Georgetown, who died Sunday, and especially to wife Anne, news editor of the Georgetown Independent, former Georgetown councillor and former Herald reporter. Our respect and condolences.
