Juniors win first match

The Gordon Alcott Junior Tennis team won their first match of the season by beating Acton seven sets to one last Saturday.

All six team members contributed to the win with Mike Mitchell taking his under 18 singles match 6-1, 6-3. Scott Turner and Jay Anderson splitting their under 18 doubles by 5-7, 6-2.

The under 15 boys made it a clean sweep with Rory Kennedy and Mike Lorto winning 6-3, 6-3 in doubles while Mike Hurley kept his unbeaten string alive by winning his third singles match of the season 6-2, 6-4.

The next match will be played at home this Saturday at 9:30 against Milton.

Ladies 'C' tennis

The Gordon Alcott "C" ladies tennis team played at Cobblestone Tennis Club last Wednesday against Cobblestone "3" team and returned home with a split in points.

The team of Trudy Roy and Lois Fraser played their match on indoor courts with scores of 7-6, 5-7 and 6-1 to win their match. Margo Prior and Carole MacLeod lost their match 3-6 and 4-6, although having some dandy rallies.

Agnes Daniels and Pat McCarthy went to 3 sets 7-5, 6-7 and 3-6 - a tough match to lose. Paddy Brown and Norma Maynard ground out their match for a win with 6-7, 6-3 and 6-4.

The team returned home knowing all about tie-breakers and pleased to get the two points along with a good morning of tennis. June 9th the "C" team hosts Bramalea "2" ladies tennis team.

Soccer school

While English Soccer Coach Bobby Houghton has set about revitalising the Blizzard, fellow countryman Jeff Stephen is doing his best to put Canadian Soccer firmly on the map.

Houghton is working at the top level while Stephen is concentrating at the grass roots level - with the kids.

Stephen, 27, like Houghton formerly with Professional English League Club Fulham, is the boss of the Toronto based company Soccer International.

The firm specializes in coaching soccer to youngsters and will be busier than ever this summer.

Starting June 28, its running 30 week long clinics for boys and girls at different locations all over Metro and the surrounding area.

Each one runs from Monday to Friday with a three hour session in the morning for six, seven and eight year olds, and three hours in the afternoon for the nine to fourteen old group. The cost: $29 a week.

Stephen, a Canadian National Coach, has been running the schools for five years.

As well as the summer stint, he stages winter soccer coaching sessions and does a considerable amount of coaching in schools for a number of school boards across the province.

"I'd love to see Canada regularly playing soccer at world class level and competing with giants like Brazil and West Germany," said Stephen.

"To do that requires young players coming through all the time and my aim is to teach young players to play better soccer."

Helping him to achieve the task this summer will be his hired coaches, many of them coming from the summer from England, and all with top coaching qualifications.

"This year is particularly significant as well because the finals of the World Cup Soccer Tournament in Spain are being televised in Canada. There will be 37 matches shown and it's bound to whet the appetite of the youngsters," said Stephen.

One team missing will be Canada. The Canucks failed in their Central American Qualifying group losing out to Honduras and El Salvador.

As well as the Summer Clinics, Stephen has weekend ones already underway for the same age groups at a cost of $12.50.

Soccer International is at 4158A Dundas St. W., Islington, M8X 1X3. Telephone 239-9715.
