

Fifty-two Halton Hills students join Sheridan College convocation

Grads strengthen economy - speaker

Silver medalist

SIMON RICHARD EDWARDS, son of Joe and Dorothy Edwards of Faludon Drive in Georgetown, received the Sheridan College Board of Governors' Silver Medal for media arts students at the convocation in Oakville June 9. He was also the recipient of the media arts Student Award presented by staff and students of that department.

Travel advisor

Mr. and Mrs. George Hacon of Georgetown are proud to announce that their daughter KELLY HACON has graduated in travel counselling. She received her certificate at the convocation ceremony for Sheridan College's Brampton students June 4.

Helping kids

Mr. and Mrs. R.C. (Bob) Ollivier of Georgetown are proud to announce the graduation of their daughter JANET OLLIVIER in Early Childhood Education. Janet participated in convocation ceremonies at Sheridan College's Oakville campus June 9.

GET TRACKIN'

Won't you join our track team? Georgetown District High School clubs were out recruiting Grade 8 students from Centennial and Stewarttown Senior Public Schools and Holy Cross Separate School June 8 to join school clubs. Winning two new recruits to the high school's track and cross country team were (left to right) Karen Edgar and Susan Kristensen. The new recruits were Shawn Langdon and Monique Douppagne of Stewarttown. Shawn is no beginner in runners. She came in second in relay at the recent Burlington meet.

Fifty-two Halton Hills residents were among the 1,636 students who graduated from Sheridan College during four convocation ceremonies held last week.

A series of guest speakers at ceremonies held both in Brampton and Oakville reminded graduates that they will have to be productive, adaptable and hopeful during these tough economic times.

"There is an underlying, constantly renewable strength in our economy - human resources," Spar Aerospace Ltd. vice-president R.D. Pollack said at the Brampton campus. "We welcome you as full-time members of the economy. We need you."

With Sheridan's School of Nursing convocation still to come July 27, the following area students have completed courses in other areas of study:

Susan Alexander (business administration), Julie Armstrong (legal secretary), Julia Arnold (family day care), Susan Bailey (media arts), Katherine Berry (micro-computer management),

Greg Branch (bus. admin.), Kerstin Chandler (retail management), Susan Colangelo (medical secretary), Susan Coomber (travel counselling), Kimberley Dickinson (travel), Sharon Dixon (hotel and restaurant administration), Simon Edwards (media arts silver medalist);

A KNOCK-OUT BALLET

That's right buddy, move it. It takes a second look to ascertain these aren't four tough young punks. They're really four girls, and what's more, they're ballet students. Along with 31 other girls in the YMCA's ballet course taught by Sandra Williams, (left to right) Jenny Williams, 9, Kyla Jackson, 9, Claire Whittaker, 10, and Emma Lewzey, 9, entertained over 80 parents and friends last Wednesday night at the closing class.

HIRE YOUTH ONTARIO! AN HELP

WE GOT JOBS!

The second batch of troops will be out soon, why don't you recruit them for your work battalion? It's Hire-a-Student week and Mayor Pete Pomeroy has made it official by signing a gold sealed declaration that says so. Mary-Ann Farenech, supervisor of the Canada Employment Centre for Students in Halton Hills takes a peek at the mayor's autograph. Employers are encouraged to call Mary-Ann at 877-7417 if they need an extra hand for an hour, or a day, or all summer. She's got lots of local "extra hands" to send over to help out. The Centre is open Monday to Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.
