

Bowling banquet Young adults award Gary and Sandy

The Young Adult Bowlers' Association Sunday night league at Georgetown Bowl held their annual awards banquet and dance on Saturday June 12th. The league season team champions were the "Unpredictables" - Diane Leonard, Julie Burns, Chris Lalond, Tim Fields, Ian Wilde and Gary Richardson.

The individual high-average trophy (the leading league bowler) was won by Sandy Cuthbert for the ladies category and Gary Richardson for the men. The trophy for the highest 3 game set of the season was taken by Robin Richardson and Grant Richardson. The highest single game award went to Sharon Pshyk and Tom Prouse.

The high triple with handicap trophy was awarded to Diane Leonard and Rick Gourlie. The high single game with handicap went to Elsie Garvard and Rob Chrishon.

The play-off champions of the A series "Hold Yer Wish" had Andy Wilson, Janet Ricks, Ruth Boyling, Jona Piehl, Dave Paterson and Bob Wilson as members.

The 'B' series play-off champions was the team of "Rick's Rookies" - Cindy Grenke, Marie Simonyl, Diane Michasiw, Jeff Chisholm, Sandy Cuthbert and Rick Gourlie.

One of the highlights of the evening was the presentation of the "Most Improved Bowler" and the "Hard Luck Bowler" recognition. Surprisingly, these went to two former presidents who used to dispense these awards. Gary Louth was the "Most Improved Bowler" while Bob Wilson received the "Hard Luck Bower" memento.

"BRIDGE THE AGES" DECLARES BOWLING CHAMPIONS
"Pee-wee" Lorne Hayes teamed up with "Golden Age" Ethel Hardman to win the annual championship of the "Bridge The Ages", the Y.B.C. Pee-wee and Golden Age tournament.

This is the tournament where the young three to seven year olds draw partners with the young at heart senior citizens to form teams of doubles. Then the bowling team, pee-wee and golden age, alternate throwing balls during a full game for three games with each one urging the other to clean up what was left on the delivery.

Hayes and Hardman won with a score of 628 for the three games including their handicap. Second place was taken by "pee-wee" Laura King and "g. age" Pearl Burt with 615 while "p.w." Amy Korzack and "g.a." Mae Tost were next with 612.

The order of the remaining team standings were: p.w. Scott Smith and g.a. Dolly Carter; p.w. Alex Bertrand and g.a. Norm Smith; p.w. Shari Lake and g.a. Agnes Dobbie; p.w. Christina Lane and g.a. Kay Brochie; p.w. Cindy Smith and g.a. Fred Shortill; p.w. Adam Poyntz and g.a. Helen Batson; p.w. Elaine Warbeck and g.a. Del Wallace; p.w. Brian Loke and g.a. Kay Fryer; p.w. David McLean and g.a. Jim Wilson; p.w. Kerry Wright and g.a. Bob Hardman.

All participants in this 'meet' of the ages received a large crest as a memento of the occasion besides the 'specials' for the champions.

A town on the run:

The thunderous roars of Mayor's Race participants

The Fourth Annual Mayor's Race for the Town of Halton Hills filled the back streets of Georgetown with the sound of thumping feet and breathless runners. The race featured 250 participants for the five kilometre and ten kilometre events, which ended with a pancake breakfast and awards presentations.

Placing in the top three positions respectively in the five kilometre run were Doug Smith (time 15:50), John Warnock (time 15:57) and Eric Hopkins. The top three finishers of the 10 kilometre run were Brian Tilley (time 35:24), Chris Keik and Steve Chipman.

Although 17 less runners took part this year, over 300 registered for the race, said co-ordinator Joy Gwilliam. According to observers the event was run smoothly by the Halton Hills Recreation department with the help of volunteer marathoners from the community.
