

Gardiner saves the Sox

The Red Sox and the Mariners, met at the fair grounds and fought tooth and nail through four innings of baseball. The final was Mariners 13 and Red Sox 12, but without an excellent play by Troy Gardiner in the final inning the game would have been tied. Troy received the outstanding player award and the team as a whole received honorable mention from coach Hall Pells for their defensive effort. The Red Sox were in the game right up to the last out. Steve Wright hit a home run for the Sox and was named outstanding player. Robert Craig also rounded the bases for a home run, while Jamie Prydie hit a triple and provided the pitching for the Red Sox. Amanda Schirk was tagged at home trying to score the tying run. Had she crossed the plate the game may have ended differently. MAJOR TYKE June 10 Shoppers Drug Mart Indians were caught off guard by the Golligers Travel Giants. The Indians were held scoreless for two innings while Mike McElroy of the Giants struck out five in a row.

In the two innings Mike pitched he gave up only one run. To add the cause Andrew French hit a three run homer and received the nod from coach Marty Chapman as the outstanding player in the game. The final score, Giants 16, Indians 5. In the second game the Continental Service Centre Padres challenged the Co-operator Expos. This game was also a well played game with each side taking the lead as the game progressed. Billy Tutt pitched a strong game for the Padres and Pat Miodozenc was named outstanding player. The Expos earned the win on good solid hitting and fielding. Darnelle Moore, Greg Mills and Brian Snow hit triples while,

Terry Moller and Richard Rivard hit doubles. The Padres were held to singles throughout the game. Brian Snow received the outstanding player award. The final score, Expos 15, Padres 12. Pitchers: Mark Smelle, Brian Bell. Triples: Gord Burke, Chris Esposito. Outstanding player: Susan Cook, Eddie Doyle. Expos 4. Outstanding player: Robbie Ross, Darnelle Moore. In the other game, the Padres and Giants tangled in a close fought match. Steve Scarlett hit a home run for the Padres, but the deciding runs were scored by Billy Tutt who tripled with bases loaded. The final Padres 17, Giants 14.
