

A senior's guide to survival

It's Senior Citizens Week across Canada, and the province's ministry of consumer and commercial relations is taking the opportunity to help seniors by publishing and distributing copies of its "Seniors' Survival Guide". Included is a summary of the area's top ten scams which seniors, often the con artist's favorite target, should beware. Copies of the kit are available free from the ministry's Consumer Information Centre, 555 Yonge St., Toronto, M7A 2H6, telephone 963-1111 or toll free 1-800-268-1142.

POLICE BEAT

Drug charge goes to trial

David Lawrence Dunn of Acton was committed for trial Thursday following a preliminary examination in Milton provincial court. He was charged with drug trafficking this spring by Halton regional police along with five other Halton Hills men. Federal crown prosecutor William Manderson said a trial date would be set Sept. 7 for Mr. Dunn.

Erin youth busted

A 16-year old youth from Erin Township was charged last week with trafficking in narcotics by Halton regional police who arrested the young man in the company of a juvenile. Police confiscated a quantity of cannabis and hashish from the Erin resident, who will be appearing in Milton provincial court July 12.

Car strikes building

A Toronto woman was treated and released for minor injuries early Saturday morning when a car in which she was a passenger skidded into a stairway at the Abitibi Papers Ltd. entrance on Rosetta Street. The Toronto driver failed to turn when he came along River Drive to the Rosetta intersection. There was $5,000 damage to the entire front end of the car. The other two passengers and the driver were unhurt. The driver was charged with careless driving.

Take-out theft

Thieves didn't wait for dinner to be cooked. Instead they took off with four roasts of beef, several pork chops, liquor and pop from an Acton Main Street South home over the weekend. Halton regional police are investigating.

Stole glass trimmer

An RR2 Rockwood man has been charged with theft over $200 in connection with the theft of a $393 grass trimmer belonging to Georgetown Rental Ltd. on Sinclair Avenue May 25. The 34-year old man will appear in Milton provincial court July 5.

Ballinafad

'Pioneer' communion observed

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent
877-5080

The Sacrament of Holy Communion was observed during church service Sunday.

It was conducted the way it was done at the communion services many years ago at the old Methodist church services. A group of worshippers formed a half circle around the communion table and each was served the bread and wine by the minister himself.

Each one in turn heard

Norval

Bus trip visits Parkwood

By KAY WILSON
Herald Correspondent

Wedding bells keep ringing when a double shower for brides-to-be Cindy Reid and Ruth Anne Wilson was held in the United Church basement June 15.

Betty Johnson opened with a couple of humorous readings and then called on the Hutton sisters, Stacey, Sarah and Merry Anne. Among the pieces

Limehouse

Trinity students at enjoyable recital

By Mrs. A. W. BENTON
Herald Correspondent
877-5458

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Benton and Mrs. John were guests at the Freeston-Robertson wedding in Mt. Calvary Lutheran Church in Detroit June 19.

Mrs. Michael Broomhead and her Trinity music students held an enjoyable recital in the Ballinafad hall last week. Mrs. Broomhead and her mother, Mrs. J. W. Noble served lunch after.

Summer joint services with St. John's Church will be June 27 to July 25 at Glen Williams, at 9:30 a.m. Rev. Barrow preaching Aug. 1 to 29 at Limehouse at 9:45 a.m. Rev. Jeffrey Davison preaching, and regular services at 9:45 a.m. will resume Sept. 5 with Rev. Peter Barrow preaching.

Mrs. M. Broomhead and her pupils held an enjoyable recital in Ballinafad church Thursday evening to a large crowd. She presented a number of awards to some of her pupils. Some were highest achievement - Andrea Schneider; most improved students - Jason Williams, and Christopher Pouw; practice chart - Kyle Pinkerton and Kelly Trant; scale - Tanya Melykuty.

Mrs. Broomhead, her mother Mrs. W.J. Noble and her mother-in-law Mrs. Reg Broomhead served lunch afterwards.

the sad and solemn words that were said by Jesus at the last supper, just before his crucifixion, as taken from the scriptures.

The Sunday school children were told by Rev. Bandy, at their story time, just what the sacred service of communion meant.

Nancy Shortill accompanied the ladies' choir at the piano when they sang a beautiful anthem.

Rev. Dr. Bandy announced during the service that congratulations were in order as presbytery had approved the two-point charge structure that was presented. As of July 1 we would be known officially as the St. Andrew's-Ballinafad charge.

The June meeting of the U.C.W. was held last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Don Brown. After the usual opening period, there was much business to discuss, this being the last regular meeting until September. Helga Schwarz showed pictures of the trip she recently took to Spain, they were very much enjoyed by all. Those in charge assisted the hostesses with the serving of lunch.

A number of ladies from the Ballinafad W.I. recently paid a visit to Maple View lodge.

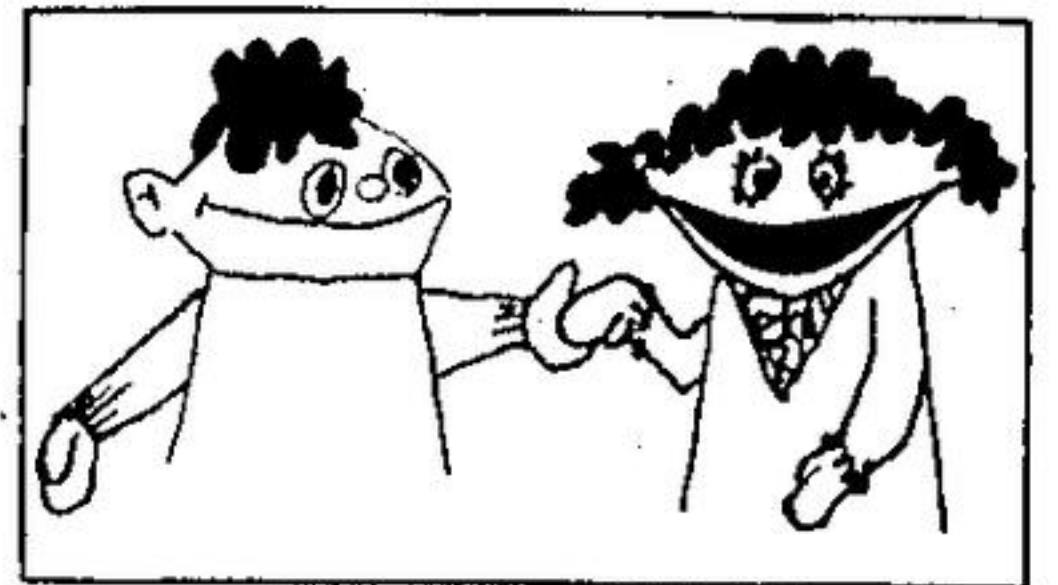

The elderly ladies who reside there, enjoyed the music and the singing which the guests provided, also the cup of tea and home-made cookies which were served.

Don't forget to keep this Saturday open for the Canada Day celebrations which have been planned for Ballinafad. There will be a parade starting at mid-morning, at the Community Centre, they will lead the way to Burnett's field on the town line where the activities of the day will take place. As usual, there will be a lunch booth on the grounds.

Lola Marshall was pleasantly surprised one day last week when her cousins, Elden and Nellie Telford, from DeKalb, Illinois, paid her a visit. It had been 14 years since she last met them.

Sharon Kanusek, a former Eighth Line resident, who now lives in Calgary, took time out from her quick business trip east to call on her past close neighbours, Willard and Vera Sanderson and Lola Marshall. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Metcalfe on the birth of their second son.

the HERALD Community

Mountainview Baptist

Puppet show set to launch Bible school

Mountainview Baptist Church in Georgetown launches a Daily Vacation Bible School July with a puppet show July 6 at 2:30 p.m. on the church grounds (moving inside in the event of rain).

Regular Bible School programs will operate daily from 9 to 11 a.m. July 7 through 16. All youngsters age five to 12 are welcome to join the fun and meet new friends.

Handicrafts, games, songs and illustrated stories will be featured every morning. The registration fee is $1.

Gone fishin'!

Attention, fishermen: the Mountsberg Wildlife Centre is having a "Bass Bonanza". Prizes and trophies await anglers who catch the biggest or the most fish June 26, 27, July 3 and 4. Bring any non-motorized boat to the Centre, just south of Highway 401 and just east of Guelph Line, pay a $3.50 parking-registration fee and have fun fishing, riding wagons, watching films or touring the park. Call 878-4131 for more information.

Big Bertha returned to the murky depths of Kelo Reservoir June 4, ready to test the angling skills of area fishermen intent upon recapturing her. The 12-pound Rainbow Trout is a real fighter, according to the Halton Region Conservation Authority, which is sponsoring a "catch Bertha" competition, with the lucky fisherman claiming a $50 "bounty". Call Carol Patterson at 878-5011 (878-3694 evenings) for more information.