

Norval

June is time for showers!

By KAY WILSON
Herald Correspondent
Showers of happiness still abound in the Norval area.

Cindy Reid, daughter of Ken and Lois Reid of RR2 Norval, is to marry John Phillips of King City, and has been honored by many showers.

Betty McClure hosted a shower for the Fourth Line neighbors and the groom's family shower was held at the home of Anne and James Ash of Mt. Albert, parents of the groom.

The United Church of Temperanceville had a community shower, and the Strong and Pallister family shower was hosted by Sarah and Orval Mashinter of Bolton.

A third family shower for the Reids and McMeekins was held at the home of Hazel and Jim Reid, RR2, Georgetown.

Norval United Church held a miscellaneous shower for Cindy, and Maid of Honor, Heather Donaldson hosted a surprise party for the Peel County Jr. Farmers, at the home of her grandparents Dave and Chris Esplin of Brampton.

The Hydro Ball Team, of which Cindy is a member, surprised her, when they presented her with a bridge set, at the home of Lois Frazer, and the York County Jr. Farmers presented Cindy and John with a money tree.

A going away dinner party was held by the office staff of MacGillivray and Co., Brampton, when they presented the bride-to-be with a window mirror, and open house was held by the bride's parents on Sunday.

Cindy and John will be married on July 3rd, in Norval United Church and will make their home on the groom's farm at King City.

Snippe honors scholar

By Mrs. A.W. BENTON
Herald Correspondent

We extend sympathy to Mrs. A.C. Patterson in the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Sinclair of Welland, last week.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anthony on the arrival of a little sister for Kevin, Monica Grace June 19.

Congratulations to Robert Snippe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Snippe, who has graduated as an Ontario scholar from the Toronto and District Christian High School with 88 per cent. He received a scholarship award from the Ladies' Auxiliary recognizing outstanding academic achievement. A requirement stated that a student must have shown himself to be a committed Christian, and must have stated his intention to pursue post secondary education. He was accepted by three universities in Ontario, and expects to enroll at the University of Waterloo.

Don't forget the July 1 parade at 4 p.m. Pot luck picnic supper at 5 p.m. and games after. All free at Memorial Hall.

SOLUTION
The African nation of Somalia on the Indian Ocean is about the size of Texas and populated by an estimated 5 million people. The 15 per cent of its land surface that is arable is threatened by drought and wind-driven sand dunes, National Geographic reports.

St. Paul's Annual Church picnic was held June 13 on the beautiful grounds of Upper Canada College Outdoor School at Norval. Baby Alexis Dawn, daughter of David and Donna Appleby, Norval, was baptised by the Rev. R. Ruggie in the Credit River. After the Baptismal service, a day of games and swimming was enjoyed by all.

A new ramp for the disabled has been completed at the Norval Post Office. Pinegrove Community Club held their annual strawberry social Friday night at the home of Irene Hunter.

Eight tables of euchre were played with winners being Hazel Reid, Ethel Webb, Keith Webb and Gerry Homell.

Following dessert, Don Brander called Bruce and Cindy McGee, who were recently married, to accept a purse of money, on behalf of the Pinegrove Community Club and friends. Best wishes were also expressed by Mac Alexander, Alan Harrop and Bob McGee. Bruce thanked everyone on behalf of Cindy and himself.

Convenors for the evening were Mary Gillard, Gertrude McGee, Anne Wilson, Jean Brander, and Kay Wilson.
