

Limehouse, Raiders raise $1,800

This ball game played on 'burro-ed' time

Donkey baseball's Limehouse debut Sunday night in front of an estimated 800 spectators provided as many grunts and strains from participants as the billing had promised.

Limehouse Minor Ball spokesman Mike Broomhead said Limehouse recorded the highest attendance for donkey baseball this summer. About $1,800 was raised from gate receipts alone.

The game held a number of memorable incidents, including a spectacular spill by NHL referee Bryan Lewis. The game ended in a 5-5 tie which caused a run-off between umpires, the Shiek and Hawkeye.

There were Shieks, Jackasses, and even the Raider Rooster made an appearance at Limehouse for the Donkey baseball game between the Limehouse Oldtimers and the Celebrity All-Stars. were Brad Miller, Gary McFadyen, Terry Harlow and Mike Coffey plus the Raider Rooster.

Mayor Pete Pomeroy gained high marks for his outstanding work in the outfield as he "covered all bases". But as Mike Broomhead said, "like the Mayor, it was hard to get a hold of him, to keep him pinned down for a minute."

In the game sponsored by the Limehouse Minor Ball Association, the celebrity All-Stars accepted the challenge from the Limehouse Oldtimers. Joining the All-Stars were Milton's NHL referee Bruce Hood plus Coun. Russ Miller.

Spike Scott for the Oldtimers tried every tactic imaginable to gain bases, including a fishing rod with a carrot on the end for some unsuspecting donkey.

Raider trainer Terry Harlow was made to ride two donkeys tied together around the bases. "I guess you could say he got a home run," Broomhead said.

Outstanding fielding came from Bill Fisher on the Limehouse side. Bob Jarrett was credited with having the most outstanding buck of the night. "It was high and then down", recounted the spill-observing umpire.

Strong hitting powers GIFL efforts

In Industrial football action last week, Hollywood Tavern downed Akers-Clarke 3-1 in a tough game, but the Tavern managed to retain their hold on first place.

Against the Steel Builders, Peel Steel powered their way to 5-3 win. Peel Steel's Bill Venna threw two hit balls to lead them to the victory. Bill Weatherall took the loss for the Steel Builders.

Armstrong Collision edged past M and M Pro Sports 6-4 as Chris Peavoy held the Sportsters to just five hits. Bob Macdonald suffered the loss for M and M Pro Sports.

Hollywood Tavern outmaneuvered the Steel Builders 8-1. Doug Anderson blasted two consecutive home runs and accumulated four RBIs to lead the taverners. On the defensive side Dan Engleby delivered 12 strikeouts to keep loser Gary Robertson's mates from mounting any attack.

Against Varian, M and M Pro Sports blanked their opponents 2-0. Despite having four players in the league's top ten batters, Varian continued to have difficulty scoring runs. This time it was Joe Deforest shutting the door while Vince Lefebvre was tagged with the loss.

Peel Steel and C and S

Plumbing tied 7-7. There was an eighth inning duel featuring a three hit, two run performance by Jim Hall in support of Jeff Gimpel and a matching one by Dave Frank for the Peel pitching combination of Tom Trevelyan and Joe Horner.

Armstrong Collision outlasted Akers-Clarke Real Estate 9-1. Scoring nine runs on only eight hits, the bodymen made it easy for winner Chris Peavoy.
