Cricket

By Dr. BOL. M. TANCOO Herald Special

K. Ramnarine came up with another magnificent all round display in batting and bowling to enable the Georgetown A cricket team to take out a narrow and exciting one wicket victory against Cambridge A on Sunday, July 4, at Victoria Park, Cambridge.

Ramnarine bowled five wickets for 29 runs and when the Georgetown team went in to bat and was facing almost certain defeat after losing nine wickets for 36 runs and still 60 runs short of the Cambridge total of 96, he was partnered by D. Mongru, Georgetown's last hope, and they stayed together and pulled off the well-nigh impossible task of scoring the 61 runs needed for victory.

D. Mongru defended courageously and defiantly and when he made the winning stroke he was 10 runs not out while K. Ramnarine was his usual aggressive self and slugged the bowling to all parts of the field hitting three fours and two lowering sixes in his game-saving score of 61 runs not out.

The Georgetown captain won the toss and sent in Cambridge to take first strike, but the bowlers N. Balkisson and K. Ramnarine soon found their length and had the batsmen in trouble.

They tried to hit their way out of the difficulty but smart fielding and good catching on the part of the Georgetown fielders caused their downfall, as they were all out for 86 runs with B. Springer scoring 17 and W. Smith, L. Adams and O. Sirju 12 runs each.

For Georgetown K. Ramnarine was the most successful bowler capturing five wickets for 29 runs while N. Balkisson and N. Samaroo gave able support and bowled three for 30 and two for 23 respectively.

At their turn in the wicket Georgetown batted disastrously as the first wicket fell for only two runs and the incoming batsmen fared little better giving up their wickets with unfailing regularity. When 6 wickets, or half the side had fallen only 19 runs were scored and the next four batsmen added 17 more runs to the total score.

With Georgetown still needing 50 runs to avoid defeat and only one wicket to fall, K. Ramnarine and D. Mongru came together in a desperate last wicket partnership and with dogged determination made the required runs in the last over of the day thus snatching an exciting victory from the jaws of defeat.

D. Seumarine bowled well for Cambridge and got two wickets for 9 runs while L. Adams had three for 26 and A. Mani three for 10.

The next game for the A team is against Guelph and will be played at Paisley Park, Guelph, on Sunday, July 18.
