

AT THE MIDDLE

Mid-week blues?
Don't let the mid-week blues get your little ones down! Fight back with the Halton Hills public libraries' Wednesday Specials: each week a new surprise. July 14 is Spy School, July 21 Dinosaur Day, July 28 a Puppet Workshop, Aug. 14 is Pirate Day and so on. Pre-register for the Wednesday Specials of your choice.

Movie munchies
No registration is required, but you youngsters better bring your lunch along for "Munch to the Movies", returning for a second successful season to the Halton Hills public libraries. Every Thursday from noon to 1 p.m. at the Acton and Georgetown library, small fry can settle in for some fun viewing. The free program runs from July 8 to Aug. 26.

Yes, master?
Attention all mad scientists! The Halton Hills public libraries have a club just for you. If you're nine years old or more, join the Mad Scientist Club at either the Acton or Georgetown library in time for meetings scheduled for July 9, 16, 23 and 30.

Gymnastics camp now at two locations

By LEE JOHNSTON
Herald Special
Responding to the growing needs of the Halton Hills community, the Recreation and Parks Department has expanded this year's Gymnastic Camp into two locations.
The original Gymnastic Camp held at the Rosewood in Georgetown has been a raving success in previous years and the response has been sufficient to support a new location.
The new location is for all enthusiastic Acton residents and is held at McKenzie-Smith Middle School. This half day camp is a favorite for all girls five years and older. Morning sessions of gymnastic will occur from 9 a.m. until 12 noon in Georgetown, while the afternoon events begin in Acton at 1 and continue until 4 p.m.
Basic skills on all-olympic apparatus are taught in an enjoyable, fun-filled atmosphere. Qualified, enthusiastic, responsible coaches work with a small circle of children to ensure individualized instruction.
The four coaches working with the children of Halton Hills will be Jill Morris, Jennifer Pepper, Scott Kline and Lee Johnston, Gymnastic Supervisor.
Recreational swims, games and films are an added feature. For more information regarding these weekly programs call the summer activities hotline at 877-5185, ext. 63.

Centres are the places to be this summer

This summer the Halton Hills recreation department has three Summer Activity centres located in the Halton Hills area: George Kennedy Public School and Park Public School in Georgetown and Robert Little Public School in Acton.
Children between the ages of five and 12 can register for a fun packed summer. Crafts will range from simple painting and drawing to leather work and candle making. The children will swim three afternoons a week and music will also be a part of our program through the use of instruments, singing, and much more. These are just a few of the activities children can experience at Summer Activity centres this summer!
All aspects of the summer programs will be integrated. Staff has completed an extensive training which includes the integration of disabled children.
The weeks of July 19 and Aug. 9 a French program will be held at George Kennedy Public School in Georgetown. (Les Activités Francaises Dete).
Children with a background in French are encouraged to register in this program which will be led by bilingual leaders.
Don't miss out on the fun. Sign up now at 25 James St., Georgetown or 40 Mill St., Acton or call 877-5185, ext. 63 for more information.
