GBA Tyke selects to enter tourney

There were only two games scheduled this week in the Major Tyke House League. When the teams arrived at their respective diamonds, namely 'D' Diamond and the Armoury, located in the Fairgrounds, it was apparent that mother nature had decided to cancel them. Two teams managed to lounge on the Park School diamond. One game is left, to be played at a later

EXPOS

INDIANS 15

Pitchers: Brian Bell, Gord Burke, Marc Smellie. Triples: Brian Bell. Doubles: Gord Burke (2), Bobby Dezeeuw (2). Outstanding player: Bobby Dezeeuw. Shoppers Drug Mart Indians played a strong game with 15 runs on 9 hits. Bobby Dezeeuw and Gord Burke led the way with two doubles each while Brian Bell added a run scoring triple. The Co-operator Expos, could say their big effort came a little late. Held pretty much at bay through the game they exploded in the last inning scoring five runs. This rally was the best effort the Expos had come up with while on the offensive, however the five run rule ended their hopes and the game.
