Herald Special

The Halton Hills Recreation Department's Summer Activities is now in progress. Parents can still register their children in summer programs which are planned and coordinated by summer students. Thirty-seven positions have been filled this summer including one coordinator, seven supervisors, and 29 leaders.

Susan Ackroyd is a Child Studies major at the Guelph University. As summer activities coordinator Susan oversees programs with the support of very fine co-workers.

Tina McGrath supervises the Tot Lot programs in Georgetown and Acton. Working with Tina are Jill Burgess, Val Keslick, and Samantha Gopill at Knox Presbyterian Church in Acton and Kathy Coe, Jill Pomeroy and Linda Phillips at Joseph Gibbons School in Georgetown.

Gymnastics Camp is supervised by Lee Johnston. The leaders of Gym Camp in both Georgetown (at the Rose room in the mornings) and Acton (at McKenzie Smith School in the afternoon) are Jen Pepper, Scott Line and Jill Morris.

The supervisor of Sports Camp is John Warnock. At two sites, one in Georgetown and one in Acton, John has five leaders working with him. Susan Auly, Brian Davis and Andrea Norgate are located in Georgetown while Linda Osso and Jane Trueman are in Acton.

Anne Ramsay, Kim Newcombe and Kristi Champ are working at Camp Prospect in Acton with supervisor Heather Gage. Also working with Heather are Michelle Sybersma and Steve Doucette, the Playmobile leaders.

There are three Summer Activity Centres in Halton Hills. Janet Ollivier supervises these programs and working with her are Carolyn Gibson, Dawn Payton and Cathy Brewes at Park School; Lisa Johnson and Kim Heaps at Robert Little School (Acton) and Linda Chiasson and Caroline Shultz at George Kennedy School.

Susan McGowan is the Dramatic Arts Supervisor and she works with Brenda Archer and Cathy McGowan at the theatre arts room at Georgetown District High School.

Our well trained staff is eager to provide children of the community with some exciting, action-packed programs. All programs are now in progress but there is still room for more participants.

Register now at 25 James St., Georgetown or 40 Mill St., Acton. For more information call the Summer Activities supervisors at 877-5185, ext. 63.
