MINOR TYKE
 By FRED MOORE
 One of last week's games was contested. The protest was raised at a coaches meeting and the final ruling, based on official baseball rules and the respective coaches agreement resulted in a win for the West Insurance White Sox.
 This week's Minor Tyke Standings reflect the change.

RED SOX 10 PIRATES 13
 Both coaches are starting to see some improvement in their teams. Shari Loke, the Pirates' outstanding player of the game made good throws from the outfield which were instrumental in helping her team win this game.
 Fred Schirk of the Red Sox singled out some heads up fielding by Jeff Wright resulting in two Pirates being called out at home significant plays which kept his team in the game.
MARINERS 15 YANKEES 13
 Once again the Mariners pulled victory from the jaws of defeat. In the majority of the Mariners games they have had to rally in the late innings to pull out a victory.
 The team as a whole comes up with some big plays when they are required and once again this was the case.
 The Yankees, always a difficult team to defeat, was challenging the Mariners through each inning. Jason Bastardo led the way with some strong pitching and was also named the Yankees MVP on the night.
 However the Mariners have a secret weapon they call on in these crucial games. If this player isn't striking his opponents out 1-2-3, he is usually making key plays in the infield or outfield.
 At bat, yes, this player can handle a baseball bat, as well, how about three home runs, one a grand slam and all in one game.
 His opponents know him well, and so does his coach: his name, EDUARDO PIQUERAS -- DYNAMITE in a red and white package.
WHITE SOX 11

 Approaching the mid point in the MAJOR TYKE schedule we see the teams falling into a uniform mathematical difference, exactly four points separate each team.
 The uniformity does not imply that each team has reached its Peter Point level of expectation. In fact, what is happening is this: the GOLIGER TRAVEL GIANTS are living up to their name. It looks as if the MAJOR TYKE DIVISION require a giant killer.

 Now we know that giant killers are hard to come by these days, but to add to the problem the GIANTS have a pitching staff that can hurl a ball at warp speed.
 Couple this with batting and fielding strength and you have a GIANT of a team.
 However in any sport there will always be a TOP DOG, and that's what makes competitive events exciting, who will be the team to knock the GIANTS off the top of the hill.
 I am sure the other three teams in the league would just love to win their next match against the GIANTS, and be dubbed the giant SLAYERS.
 Let's face it, half the fun is playing your best and developing skills, the other half is saying to the GIANTS after the game -- thanks for the challenge.
PEE WEE-BANTAM TOWN-COUNTRY TWINS 15
 Pitchers: Rob Gramada, Geoff Kent.
 Doubles: Geoff Kent, John Williams (2).
 Comments: A tremendous effort by all 7 players on the team.

 Home runs: Tim Vanderkooy (2).
 Triples: John Johnston, Robbie Cook.
 Doubles: Tim Vanderkooy.
ROBERT PHILLIES 20
 Pitchers: Brant Mau, Mark Carriere.
 Outstanding player: Trevor Kemp.
 Comments: Since the beginning of the season Trevor Kemp has steadily improved his baseball to the point where he is now a very good asset to his team. He is a very good sportsperson and seems to enjoy the game tremendously.
DQ DODGERS 22
 Pitchers: Greg Tuck,

Tim Chapman.
 Triples: Tim Chapman.
 Doubles: Pat McCarthy, Howard Green.
 Comments: Dairy Queen Dodgers could brush up on their fielding.
OPTIMIST ORIOLES 11

 Home runs: Mark Hillier.

T-ball Mets top Cubs

Halton Hills Credit Union Mets 32
A.E. LePage Cubs 24
 Mets: continued their winning streak to seven games in a row. Jim Kavanaugh was the game's outstanding player with excellent support from Theresa Kent and Denise Hannah. Colleen McDonald continues to improve at bat adding three hits.
 Cubs: Michael Kokos was the game's outstanding player with three home runs. Christopher Adamo and Faizel Mirza added two home runs each. Blaine Kennedy was excellent at back catcher and line base running was added by Corey Mainprize and Duane Astrauska.
Nell's Music A's 32
Elks Angels 24
 A's: Team effort led the A's to a well deserved win. The game's outstanding players were Jeannette Burke and Charlie Snook. Home runs by Charlie Snook and Brady Chandler.

 Angels: With only nine Angel players available this team played extremely well and showed they are a contender for the playoffs. Outstanding players Andy Crabbe and Ryan Hutchins.
 Halton Hills Credit Union Mets 27
Elks Angels 18
 Mets: Another good hitting game turned in by the Mets. Jim Kavanaugh added three home runs and Chris Penrice a triple. Steven Welsh was excellent as a base runner and Brian Lake was the game's outstanding player.
 Angels: The Angels were again short of players but still played a strong aggressive game in a losing effort. Kim Walker and Jeff Whorley were the Angel outstanding players.

A.E. LePage Cubs 30
Nell's Music A's 27
 Cubs: A close game for the Cubs. Shaun Parker played superbly as a catcher and supplied two singles for his team. Sherry Peacock and Jenny Lorito ran with great speed along the base line and each scored runs for the Cubs.

plate knocking in two runs; Mark Lorito also had a good day at the plate going 3-4 with five RBIs, Brad Phee and Travis Gardiner were 2-2, with Robbie Boyle at 2-4, and Curtis Green, John Brooker and Steve Lee getting singles for Georgetown.
 On June 22 Oakville paid a visit to the Fairgrounds and jumped into a quick lead in the first few innings but Georgetown didn't give up and came back to tie at 14-14, Travis Gardiner started on the mound for the hometowners but ran out of steam in the fifth and Wesley McCauley came on to hold the opposition scoreless the rest of the way, with a fine pitching performance.

 At the plate Georgetown was led by John Brooker, Adam Bennett, Robbie Boyle and Wes McCauley.
 Defensively Andrew Hoddinott, Mark Lorito and two fine catches by John Brooker, one resulting in a double play were the stars for Georgetown.
MISSISSAUGA
 On June 28 Georgetown played host to the Mississauga Reps coming out on the short end of a 11-10 score. Andrew Hoddinott and Wesley McCauley did the pitching for Georgetown, at the plate Wesley McCauley went 4-5 to lead the locals.
 June 29 found the local Reps in Streetsville with Travis Gardiner going the distance on the mound as Georgetown won by a 11-7 score.
 John Brooker played a standout game at second base making several difficult plays look easy.
 Andy Pearce went 2-2 at the plate to lead the 13 hit attack; Adam Bennett was 3-5 with 3 RBIs, John Brooker also had 3 RBIs with a double and a single in 4 trips to the plate.
