

ROLLICKING GOOD TIME

When the Hornby Ball Clubs get together to hold their annual garden party, they know a lot about entertainment. It was the 38th such event for the organization Saturday night. Crowds gathered around a bandstand, to hear the country tunes of the Jeff Barry Band. Other entertainers also were on stage at various points during the evening and there was dancing in the pavilion which overlooks Hornby Park on Steeles Avenue. Earlier the hometown crowd cheered as the local favorites, the Mitowne Realty football club, edged the Glen Merchants 4-4.

Sidewalk rowdies charged

Acton police insulted

Two Acton men were charged following a disturbance on Mill Street outside a pizza restaurant Sunday at 12:50 a.m.

Richard Holmes, 22, was charged with causing a disturbance and assaulting police. Kevin Slater, 26, was charged with obstructing police.

Following the arrests, police report, a number of Acton businesses suffered damages by vandals who threw rocks in the windows. There was approximately $90 damage to a glass window at the Toronto-Dominion Bank on Mill Street. The Acton Arcade on Main Street North had $300 damage when a seven-by-seven foot front window was smashed. First Line Television on Main Street had $800 damage.

Police said a group of youths sitting outside the restaurant on the sidewalk started shouting and swearing at police officers.
