Major Atoms drop 2

By STEVE MELVILLE
Herald Special
Georgetown vs
Mississauga

Major Atom Raiders played their best game to date vs Mississauga.

Working hard against a stiff headwind in the first half, the Raiders' efforts were rewarded when Nicky Varrichio crossed Mike Melville's lead pass and Chad Bailey slammed it in on the volley, much to Mississauga's horror.

The Raiders' enthusiasm to score again allowed two breakaway goals by Mississauga; but, when the Raiders settled down, the second half was scoreless. Georgetown had a couple of good scoring attempts, one squarely hitting the goalpost.

Although we lost 2-1, the Raiders have every right to be proud of this effort which gave Mississauga 10 fewer goals than on their first encounter. All the Raiders played hard and well; Steve Alchin and Wade Sergeantson played the game of their lives. Georgetown vs Erin Mills fielding only 10 players, Georgetown Raiders played a very strong first half vs Erin Mills. The line of Mark Minich, Steve Alchin and Wade Sergeantson defended well, while Jimmy English on the half-line had an excellent half of tackling and delivering the ball to the forwards.

After an unfortunate goal by Erin Mills, the fine passing of the forwards was rewarded with a goal by Paul McLeod, assisted by Chad Bailey.

The second half featured a few more good plays, but fatigue set in and Georgetown's team effort slackened off. Erin Mills came away 4-1 winners.
