ball game 4-3 in Milton's favour.

Greg Tuck and Tim Chapman both pitched well for Georgetown.

Oakville 6
Georgetown 2
Georgetown jumped out to a quick 2-0 lead over Oakville after the first inning, but was held scoreless for the remaining five innings by a strong Oakville pitching staff.

A big thank you to the Peel Wee coaches Steve Grassy and Jeff Wood for the many extra hours spent working with the boys. They all enjoyed the experience of playing in the well-run Milton tournament.

BANTAM
Milton 4
Georgetown 1

It was a rather frustrating game for the Georgetown boys losing 4-1 to Milton partly due to poor umpiring at home plate with much confusion to the boys.

They were very nervous at the beginning but came on strong just before the game was called at the 5th inning with the tying run on first and second and the batter up was called out on another bad call.

Brent Hutt pitched an extremely good game with his quick pick offs at second and scoring the only run for Georgetown.

All the boys deserve credit for their excellent effort.

Georgetown 7
Oakville 3

Georgetown came through with a fine win against stiff competition from the Oakville squad.

Georgetown was ahead 3-1 in the middle of the fifth when Steve McCarthy cracked a double and drove in three runs for the winners.

Steve also pitched a fantastic game holding the Oakville team to three runs.

Also scoring for the Georgetowners were Stuart Morgan (2), George Kent, Ron Harmelin, Joe Wilkins, Bruce Cameron, Mark Esposito and Nelson Hannah.

Georgetown 5
Streetsville 12

Georgetown got off to a good start against Streetsville in the third inning batting in 5 runs to take the lead 5-0, but bad luck suddenly set in during the fourth and fifth innings with Streetsville taking the lead and winning 12-5.

The enthusiasm and dedication of the Bantam coaches, Derek Williams and Fred Wallace, made this a great experience for all the boys involved.

T-Ball clubs playing to win

T-BALL
A.E. LePage Cubs 25
Neil's Music A's 19

CUBS:
Cubs overwhelmed the A's as Mike Kotsos executed a superb triple play with Bobby Campbell and Duane Astruskas making great defensive plays. Corey Malnprize and Chris Adamo turned in fine back-catching performances.

The A's couldn't get untracked for this game but kept the score close with John MacDonald's pitching. Outstanding performances from Charlie Snook and Courtney Ward.

Halton Credit Union Mets 25
Elks Angels 20

METS:
The Mets came out flying in this close encounter as Jim Kavanagh (3) and Chris Penrise hit home runs. Steven Walsh and Colin Mountain were the game's outstanding players.

ANGELS:
After their slow start the Angels played well in the last inning but could not overcome the Mets' huge lead. Steve Boyle was the defensive star with Ryan Hutchins the offensive one.

Halton Credit Union Mets 20

Neil's Music A's 12
METS:
This was a low scoring game as holidays hit both teams. Home runs by Jim Kavanagh (2), Denise Hannah, Julie Scarlet and Marc Reaume ensured the Mets victory. Defensive player was Brian Loke.

A's:
The A's were led by Jason Lanthier and Kerri Van De Valk with outstanding defensive performances by Steven Onoprenko and Carole Burns. Jeanette Burke was the defensive star.

A.E. LePage Cubs 27
Elks Angels 27

ANGELS:

With their coach on holidays Alfie Hutchins took over the team and coached them to the tie with Chris Armstrong and Jason Ogden pitching. The offense came through with a big effort led by Grant Goodfellow and David Vanderdyl.

CUBS:
This high scoring game featured many offensive stars such as Todd Fuller, Bobby Campbell and Faizel Mirza. Pitching Stars were Faizel Mirza and Corey Malnprize.
