

Let there be lights

As of last week, the Georgetown Minor Baseball Association has been using diamond A at the Georgetown Fairgrounds at night under hardball lights after a summer of waiting for the lights to be constructed.

Early in the season the GBA and the Town of Halton Hills came to an agreement with regards to changing diamond A from a designated softball diamond with softball lights to a hardball diamond with hardball lights.

The GBA agreed to pay $14,000 over a number of years to pay most of the cost with the Town of Halton Hills picking up the rest of the tab.

GBA president Colin Brookes says the lights have been very effective and the timer used to turn the lights on and off is working fine.

QUALITY GOOD
The quality of the lighting is as good as any in the Halton County Baseball Association according to the Georgetown Junior Eagles manager Finn Poulstrup.

The lights will enable the GBA Rep teams as well as house league teams and other baseball groups a chance to play into the night. Brookes says most of the rep teams next year will be able to put their game times back to 7:30 p.m.

Part of the problem in waiting all summer for the lights to be erected had to do with ordering the light standards which were not in stock. Brookes says hardball diamonds require that eight poles be used to light the area instead of the normal six poles for softball.

A six foot high portable fence was never put in place for the Georgetown Eagles although the markings for it at the edge of the outfield were dug, Brookes says.

The GBA also purchased a pitching machine this year which has been put to profitable use by many teams from Tyke house league to the Junior Rep Eagles club. The $2,600 machine is versatile enough that it can change speed and throw curve balls and sliders, Brookes says.

GIRLS SQUIRT SOCCER

Red Devils 2
Smurfs 1
Red Devils beat Smurfs 2-1 in a well played game although the Smurfs played with only seven players.

Goals were scored for the Red Devils by Michelle Boulanger who got both the team goals. Smurfs goal was scored by Lorraine Mann. Noteworthy players for Red Devils were Tracy Fowler, Tanya Marisen and Janice Lemay.

Smurfs' noteworthy players were Tarasza Smith who assisted in the goal and all players, they played an excellent game with only seven players.

The referee was Gord Savage. I'd like to note these young referees are doing a great job this year.

Aug. 5: Champions were to play the Eagles but were unable to field a team and forfeited the game.
